SCENE OF SIMULATED CAR-SCHOOL BUS ACCIDENT

Mock Disaster Had Touch of Realism

By LYNN MULVANEY

KINGSTON

A mock disaster involving a school bus filled with children and a car carrying a pregnant woman, sent ambulances racing over the area countryside Saturday afternoon, carrying victims to Margaretville, Benedictine and Kingston Hospitals.

A State Police helicopter picked up one of the injured and transported her from the scene of the "accident" on old Route 28 north of the Thruway circle to the Benedictine Hospital Heliport in two and one-half minutes.

The exercise, sponsored by the Ulster County Ambulance Association, involved hundreds of volunteers including medical personnel at the three hospitals, dozens of youngsters from the Woodstock-Saugerties area who posed as "victims" and many members ambulance and police and other agencies.

Victims, wearing "bloodied" bandages and showing incredible realistic "wounds" fashioned by Simulaid's of Woodstock, presented such an aura of reality that passersby, hospital visitors and onlookers were convinced, at first glance, that a tragedy had actually occurred.

Gilbert Gray of Doctor's Ambulance in Kingston praised the operation saying it was of such benefit to the participants and the community that he anticipates the drill will become an annual occurrence.

Robert Kurland, of Ulster County Community College, senior instructor for medical emergency technicians, said he and a committee will make an evaluation of the drill.

In addition to Doctor's Ambulance, Fatum's Ambulance of Kingston, Marlborough Rescue Squad and West Hurley Fire Department and Ambulance responded to the scene.

New York State Police and the Ulster County Sheriff's Department took part in the drill and Staff Sgt. C. M. Mataraza of Stewart Field, Newburgh, and T/Sgt. T. J.

Forster of Albany, flew the State Police Jet Ranger helicopter. Boy Scouts of Woodstock participated and many young men and women volunteered as the 35 victims. Upon completion of the drill refreshments were served in the cafeterias of the hospitals.

Hospital personnel stood by with wheelchairs and stretchers at the emergency room entrance and a doctor quickly examined patients as they entered, directing them to the area of treatment necessary according to his diagnosis.

Landslide Victory For President Thieu

SAIGON (UPI) — President Nguyen Van Thieu rolled up a landslide reelection victory today, according to official figures for South Vietnam's uncontested presidential vote, and he called it a national achievement.

"This is really a very good achievement of our nation and our people in the building and implementing of democracy," Thieu said in a statement issued from Independence Palace.

Thieu, 48, noted that there had been a higher recorded turnout of voters—87.7 per cent—than for any nationwide election since he first ran for office in 1967. That year 83 per cent turned out at the polls.

Meantime, a group of influential backers of Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky also issued a statement in which they called the election "a farce."

They demanded that the United States halt direct support of Thieu's government because the election "was conducted with the support of Ambassador (Ellsworth) Bunker and in an atmosphere of discontent to the people and government repression."

"We do not recognize the leadership of Mr. Nguyen Van Thieu," the statement said. "We do not recognize all the prefabricated results of the election which Mr. Thieu's police machinery organized and controlled."

The statement was issued by the "People's Force Against Dictatorship," a committee formed last week of influential Ky backers and other opponents of Thieu.

The government Election Information Center published a preliminary nationwide count that showed Thieu got 5,776,074 votes, or 91.51 per cent of the total of 6,311,853 cast.

North Vietnam may launch resupply push earlier than usual... Story Page 28.

The center said 353,148 votes were invalid and counted against Thieu. That amounted to 5.5 per cent of the vote. There was some mystery about the remaining 3 per cent. Officials said there were some "missing ballots" and it would be one or two days before all the votes could be accounted for.

Thieu had said he would quit if he didn't get more than 50 per cent of the vote, but the huge plurality of ballots counted gave him an overwhelming vote of confidence.

The results showed the grip the Thieu-appointed province chiefs have on the countryside. All of them are army colonels and all of them were under orders to get out the vote and make sure it went to the president.

The overwhelming majority in his favor appeared to be a surprise even to Thieu since he had indicated before the election he expected to get about 60 per cent of the votes.

Thieu's new four-year term begins Oct. 31. Going into power with him will be Tran Van Huong, who replaces Ky as vice president, and Prime Minister Tran Thien Khiem.

One member of the opposition, National Assembly Deputy Ly Qui Chung, said "the election of Mr. Thieu is a humiliation for our people."

The U.S. Embassy had no comment on the outcome, although Ambassador Ellsworth C. Bunker had carried out a series of pre-election meetings in an attempt to turn the election back into a contested race rather than a one-man referendum.

However, there were almost certain to be charges of election rigging. Already, several discrepancies were reported.

The official election center in Saigon reported complete returns from the city of Da Nang by 9 p.m. Sunday showing that Thieu received 74.4 per cent of the vote there.

However, UPI correspondent Stewart Kellerman reported from Da Nang at 11 p.m. that officials at City Hall there had not even finished tabulating the number of persons who voted and counting of the ballots would not begin until Monday.

In some areas, including Da Nang and Saigon, large wastebaskets in which voters who wished to oppose Thieu had to discard their ballots were placed in sight of election officials and police who were on guard duty at the polling places.

With the South Vietnamese presidential election out of the way, the U.S. command today announced one of its biggest American troop cutbacks in two years. U.S. withdrawal had been slowed in anticipation of guerrilla attacks during the election campaign.

Four full battalions and three smaller units ended their combat role today, one day after the election, a move which will reduce U.S. troop strength by 3,215 men. It was the largest troop standdown since the withdrawals began July 1, 1969, under President Nixon's troop withdrawal program, and it was the first withdrawal of ground combat units since Sept. 15.

The command announced that as of the end of September, 212,500 Americans remained in South Vietnam, the lowest number since February 1966, when there were 208,000.

Sky Pirate Guns Down Two, Commits Suicide in Airplane

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (UPI) — A would-be hijacker shot and killed his wife, a charter plane pilot and himself today in an aborted try to hijack the twin-engine light plane to the Bahamas, the FBI reported.

FBI agents said the plane was commandeered by two men and a woman shortly after takeoff from Nashville on a flight to Atlanta. The aircraft stopped at Jacksonville for refueling.

Agents identified the hijacker as George Mallory Giffe Jr., of Nashville, Tenn. His wife was Sue Giffe, 26, and the pilot was Brent Quentin Downs, 29, also of Nashville. A third hijacker aboard the plane was Bobby Wayne Wallace and the copilot was Randall G. Crump, 32, both of Nashville, the FBI said. Wallace and Crump were not injured.

Agents here said they were notified of the hijacking at 4:05 a.m. by the Federal Aviation Administration, which was in contact with Downs by radio. Agents were waiting for the plane when it arrived in Jacksonville an hour later.

Agent Jim O'Conner said immediately after the brown and white Hawk Commander landed, Crump and Wallace jumped out through a rear exit. "Then a decision was made to disable the plane," O'Conner said.

He and another agent shot out the tires and the engine and

"about two or three minutes later" shots rang out inside the plane. Giffe apparently shot Downs in the back through the seat, shot his wife, fired two shots through the windshield at the agents and then killed himself, the FBI said.

"A couple of shots came by me," O'Conner said.

O'Conner said Wallace was arrested and charged with piracy and then said there was a bomb aboard. O'Conner removed a blue box, placed it on a corner of the isolated runway at Jacksonville International Airport and called the Navy bomb squad.

O'Conner said Wallace told him "Giffe wanted a hijacking," when he was asked about a motive for the hijack.

O'Conner said Wallace was carrying a fully loaded 38-caliber automatic pistol which had not been fired. "We must assume Giffe did all the shooting," the agent said.

The plane was owned by Big Brothers Aircraft of Nashville. Mack Brothers, president of the air charter firm, said Giffe had made arrangements for the charter Sunday afternoon saying Giffe planned to take one man to Atlanta with him and bring another back.

Larry Wayne Reed, 20, a Big Brother employee, said two men and a girl roared up to the office about 1:45 a.m. in a late model Cadillac and the man, later identified as Giffe, leaped from the car and flashed identifications at the two pilots, who were standing beside the waiting plane.

Giffe said he was a doctor and the girl in the car was "on drugs and doesn't know what she is doing," Reed said.

The pilot asked to see his credentials again, and Giffe ran back to the car and dragged the girl out while the other man jumped out the door from the passenger side, Reed said.

Both men drew pistols and ordered the pilots into the plane.

Reed said the girl was "screaming and beating on the glass" before she was dragged from the car.

Reed said the two men forced the pilots on the plane at gunpoint and started taxing toward the runway. Reed ran back to the building and called the airport security police.

END RESULT—Ballot boxes are upended as voting in the South Vietnamese presidential election comes to an end and the ballots are counted. Despite street riots, bombing polling places and rocket attacks on big cities, an estimated 70 per cent of the eligible voters went to the polls. (UPI TELEPHOTO)

Shawangunk Climber Dies

GARDINER, N.Y. (AP) — Physicist Lester H. Germer of Millington, N.J., a research associate at Cornell University, died here Sunday while scaling a cliff in Ulster County's Shawangunk Mountain range.

State Police said Dr. Germer, 74, suffered some form of seizure. The cause of his death was not determined immediately.

State troopers said Germer was leading a party of about six persons from the Appalachian Mountain Climbers Association when others in the party said he suddenly went limp and fell 10 to 20 feet down the cliff.

The other climbers said Germer was pulled up short by his safety rope and lowered to the ground.

He was dead on arrival at Ellenville Community Hospital.

Germer had been associated with Cornell's Department of Applied Physics for the past 10 years and had done research work for the Bell Telephone Co. in Murray Hill, N.J.

Ulster County Coroner Arthur A. Chipp, who investigated the incident along with Highland State Police, said that Dr. Germer's body was taken to the Ulster County morgue in Kingston. A preliminary investigation by a pathologist will be conducted to determine if an autopsy is to be performed.

The accident occurred at about 4:30 Sunday afternoon off

Route 44-55 (the Minnewaska Trail) in the Town of Gardiner on the east side of the Shawangunk Mountain Range.

That area is visited by a large number of mountain climbers, both expert and novice, every weekend. Climbers, and scaling clubs, come from throughout New York State, New Jersey and New England to scale the sheer cliffs, or to use less treacherous paths, to reach the summit of the mountain.

At Ulster GOP Dinner

Conte Scores Farm Subsidy

By LYNN MULVANEY

Even the Queen of England is in on the farm subsidy bonanza in the United States. Congressman Silvio O. Conte of Massachusetts told a record-breaking crowd of Ulster County Republicans at their annual fund raising dinner at the Granit Hotel in Accord Sunday night.

"Rankled at the billions we pay annually to large, corporate farm operations not to plant crops," Conte said the farm subsidy program, started in the '30's to help the little farmer get by while the market for his crops was falling apart, has been perverted. "Today it's the big operator who milks the program and thereby milks the American taxpayer."

He told of a Mississippi farm, owned by a British conglomerate of which the Royal family is the biggest investor, picking up more than $731,000 from the U.S. farm subsidy program in 1969 and another $815,000 last year. Mississippi Senator James Eastland, too, has been picking up $120,000 a year, he said and "the Boswell Company of California pocketed more than $1 million a year" under the program.

Congressman Conte, who was introduced by Rep. Hamilton Fish Jr., said he has been able to get a $20,000 limit on payments passed in the House three times but "three times the Senate refused to go along." Conte said Fish has supported him all the way on this issue and "we are going to keep working on it until the Agriculture Department decides it had better remove this outrage it is perpetrating on the American taxpayer."

A seven-term congressman who was first elected to the Massachusetts State Senate at age 29, Conte, also spoke of President Nixon's performance saying, "I believe that the party that brought our troops back, rather than the one which sent them over (to Vietnam), deserves the support of this nation."

The coming 1972 election also came in for some comment by the congressman who spoke of the Democrats making an issue of the nation's economic troubles.

"I don't believe the memory of the American people is that short," Conte said. "I don't believe the public has forgotten the last Democratic administration's promises of both guns and butter, and I don't believe the public has forgotten the results of that policy—annual deficits of $20 billion of more."

The Democrats blaming inflation on the Republicans is a little like building the Tower of Pisa and then claiming the world is tilted," he quipped.

Among those in attendance at the event were Louis R. Levine, state industrial commissioner and George E. Yerry Jr., commissioner of the New York State Workmen's Compensation Board. Also, State Sen. Jay P. Rolison, Assemblyman H. Clark Bell, Harold Hughes, GOP candidate for Supreme Court, Third Judicial District; Cyrus Schoonmaker, chairman of the Delaware County GOP; Kingston mayoral candidate, Robert F. Murphy and Alderman-at-Large candidate Bernie Singer.

Republican County Chairman Albert Spada spoke briefly welcoming the huge throng saying, "Progress is more to the GOP than a campaign slogan, it is action."

Dinner Chairman Peter J. Savago, chairman of the Ulster County Legislature, citing the record of the GOP called it, "a record we can be proud of." Urging everyone to "work hard" for the party, he suggested, "Let's keep our government in good hands."

Others on the dais included Ben Slutzky, Edwin Callahan and Mrs. William D. Brinnier, vice-chairmen; Clarence Anderson, party secretary and William J. Collins, treasurer.

Also, Mrs. Frederick Stang, state committeewoman, Mrs. Robert Davidson, president of the Ulster County Republican Women's Club and Mrs. Roger Kelley, president of the Ulster County Young Republican Club.

Sister Mary Charles, administrator of Benedictine Hospital gave the invocation.

Other candidates introduced included Sheriff William B. Martin, Richard Buono, candidate for coroner, aldermanic and county legislature candidates.

Schovel Offers Tax-Cut Budget

SAUGERTIES Town of Saugerties Supervisor A. Michael Schovel has presented the Saugerties Town Board with a 1972 budget which he says will reduce taxes in the township by 84 cents per thousand and reduce town taxes chargeable to the village by $4.58 per thousand.

Termining his 1972 proposals "fair and realistic," Schovel asserted that "the reductions in my budget can be put into effect without reducing services. There will be two more full time policemen added to the town Police Department. I have recommended that their starting salary be increased to $6,500 per year. The two new police cars have been paid for."

Continuing his statement on town fiscal policy, the Democratic candidate for reelection said,

"The amount allocated for recreation will remain the same. However, I strongly recommend that more attention be paid to the areas of Malden, West Camp, High Woods and West Saugerties. These areas are being ignored by the present Recreation Commissioner. For instance, a great deal could be done in the Grant Morse school area. A fair but stern approach regarding town welfare has resulted in a reduction of 50 percent in that portion of the budget. Almost all of the old highway equipment has been replaced and is very nearly all paid for."

"The cuts in this year's budget are due in part to the fact that a conservative approach to last year's budget left a $38,000 carry-over from the general fund, town wide. I held the councilmen to hard-nosed conservative budgets in their areas of responsibility. I permitted no unnecessary spending. The tax cuts in this budget have been made without mortgaging our future."

"You can see that the town tax dollar has really been put to work during the last four years. Solvent, progressive government has always been my goal. The opposition's 1971 platform presents nothing new. In fact, their platform this year talks about things I campaigned for four years ago, and I quote from my 1967 campaign: 'You can't stop progress, therefore, the thing to do is look ahead, plan ahead for the things a growing community needs—water, sewers, garbage disposal, recreation. . . . Today's world leaves very little room for doing things the way we have always done.' An efficient government can be just as friendly and courteous as an inefficient one and provide better services for the tax dollar.' The opposition's 1971 platform presents nothing new. In fact, it's four years late," Schovel said. "I have tried to apply my knowledge as a business man to the operation of Saugerties town government. It's been uphill all the way. If you think my record deserves reelection, please give me some help on the Town Board," Schovel concluded.

Times Report on Attica

Football Block Caused Revolt

NEW YORK (UPI)—A misunderstanding by a prison guard who mistook a lesson in football blocking for a scuffle sparked the Attica state prison rebellion that resulted in the deaths of 42 persons, according to a report in today's New York Times.

In a 10,000 word chronology of the prison rebellion and the bloody assault that followed, The Times said it sought to clarify a number of misunderstandings and rumors that filtered from the prison to the news media.

The newspaper said that among the erroneous rumors was a report that guard William Quinn had been thrown from a second story window and official comment that hostages had had their throats slashed by rebel prisoners.

Another report, published in today's editions of the New York Daily News, also sought to piece together the events at Attica between Sept. 9-13.

The News quoted an unidentified captain who briefed the assault team as saying: "I don't want this to be a bloodbath, our main objective is to get the hostages out with as little violence as possible."

The News also reported that state police Capt. Henry F. Williams, who was in charge of the Attica assault, gave the following order to the first wave of armed state troopers: "Move in. Move in. The drop (of teargas) has been made." The newspaper said that available evidence gives no indication the troopers were ordered to open fire.

According to The Times, nine hours before the inmates seized control of the prison, a veteran correctional officer, Lt. Richard Mulrooney, saw what he thought was a fight in the prison yard. Mulrooney moved in on the apparent combatants, the newspaper said, and was struck by one of the inmates.

But, The Times said, the alleged fight was nothing more than a white inmate, identified as Ray Lamorie, teaching a black prisoner, said to be Leroy Dewey, some football moves and feints. Lamorie was reportedly a defensive coach on the prison football team.

The Times said that later that night Dewey, who allegedly hit Mulrooney, was taken to a segregated cell, which prompted the rumor among inmates that he had been beaten by guards. Early the next morning, inmates went on a rampage, taking over control of much of the prison.

The newspaper also said that the death of Quinn occurred during the takeover when he was overrun by prisoners while manning a gate and fractured his skull. Initial reports from prison authorities said Quinn was hurled from a second story window.

Both The Times and the News pointed out that official autopsy report revealed that none of the nine hostages killed the day of the assault died of slashed throats as originally reported by state correction authorities. They all suffered gunshot wounds.

Another rumor that a prison guard had been emasculated also proved false, both newspapers said.

City Welfare Figures Released

NEW YORK (UPI)—Approximately 4 per cent of the city's eligible welfare recipients have refused to comply with a state law requiring them to work if able, figures released Sunday showed.

The city welfare administrator said this was more accurate than earlier predictions that 20 per cent of the people receiving relief did not deserve it.

When the new law requiring that those fit to work pick up their relief checks at employment centers rather than getting them in the mail, roughly 20 per cent of the city's 29,389 welfare clients classified in August as employable failed to show up.

At the time several state officials said this showed there was a great number of undeserving persons receiving welfare. But City Human Resources Administrator Jule Sugarman said Sunday 1,152 persons—3.9 per cent of the total welfare rolls—refused to comply with the new law.

Under the law, it would be determined if welfare recipients were able to work and if so, they were given job referrals.

"Contrary to outside initial reaction based on partial and undifferentiated information—the widely quoted 20 per cent no-show rate—this information suggests that most of the employable welfare population is actually complying with the law," Sugarman said.

Sugarman's report said 5,911 persons, about 20 per cent of those employable in August, did not report originally in August when the law went into effect.

Of these, 2,402 were shown to have legitimate reasons for failing to appear, 875 are awaiting disposition and 151 are still under investigation. Of the cases removed from the rolls, 1,152 refused to comply with the law and the moving to another region or rest were dropped for reasons of whereabouts unknown.

Lindsay Group Urges More Vocational Aid

NEW YORK (AP)—Mayor Lindsay's Commission on State-City Relations has urged New York State to observe voluntary Federal guidelines which it says would have allowed the city a larger slice of Federal aid to vocational education.

William J. vanden Heuvel, chairman of the Commission, said Sunday that 45 of 50 states use "a formula or point system to determine how to distribute such Federal aid," New York one of the other five, and, the report said, Federal officials characterize the state's approach as the most "subjective."

The city would have been given $22 million more in Federal aid to vocational education since 1968, vanden Heuvel said, if "the state had allocated Federal funds on the same basis as Pennsylvania or Illinois."

Lindsay's commission was formed shortly after Gov. Rockefeller created a commission to study the Lindsay administration following a stormy state legislative session earlier this year during which the two men traded charges and counter-charges.

The 6,000-word report, entitled "Washington to Albany to New York: The Games that Governments Play," was described as the first in a series showing how the city suffered "shortchanging" in dealings with the state and federal governments.

The report claimed the city was being penalized for its long-standing vocational education programs, dating back to 1917, while the bulk of the federal money went to newer programs upstate.

During the current fiscal year, the report said, the city was granted $7.35 million for vocational education, or 24 per cent of the Federal allotment. The Board of Education had asked for $11 million, the report said.

Stratton Wants Veto Use To Retain Taiwan on Council

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Rep. Samuel S. Stratton, D-N.Y., said today the United States should use its veto power to keep Nationalist China in the United Nations' Security Council if Taiwan loses its membership in the General Assembly.

Stratton, a senior member of the House Armed Services Committee, outlined his position in a speech prepared for delivery at the annual convention of the Savings Association League of New York State, which is being held in Bermuda.

Stratton noted the U. S. government supports giving the Security Council seat to mainland China as part of a "package resolution" that also provides for retaining Taiwan's membership in the General Assembly.

"If it fails when put to a vote, then clearly the package deal is off, and we are at liberty to act as we see fit," the Amsterdam Democrat said.

Stratton said "We still have the power to block any change in membership in the Security Council with our veto and we certainly ought to use it."

Stratton also criticized the press and the Congress for what he said was an absence of debate on America's changing Asian policy since President Nixon disclosed his plans to go to mainland China.

Stratton said he favored the current effort to "improve relations with the Chinese, but that he was "greatly disturbed by what is obviously a major switch now under way in our whole Asian policy which has been painfully and carefully built up over more than a quarter of a century."

"Moreover, this switch is taking place without any real debate or discussion either in the Congress, or in the news media, and, as far as I can see, without any clear idea in the executive department as to exactly where it is headed or what its long-range implications are likely to be."

Dutchess Candidate Speaks on Taxes

HERBERT H. GINDELE, Conservative candidate for the Board of Representatives from Hyde Park-Clinton, has announced a proposal to eliminate all school taxes from property. Gindele emphasized that his proposal was designed to realign the tax burden, not eliminate it. He said the idea of elimination was unrealistic. Property taxes would still be left to town, city and county government. School taxes would be collected by the state from a surtax on state income tax, based on a percentage of the federal tax paid.

School tax, as is regular income tax, would be deducted from the taxpayer's pay check, in the Gindele plan. This would eliminate a large lump sum payment.

Gindele said "The present system of taxation is terribly inequitable since it presupposes that a person's wealth is in the land and buildings he owns. This ownership may not be productive of income and therefore, such a supposition has little relationship to one's income."

State Police Arrest Pair

A third degree burglary charge was leveled against 23-year-old Sonny Thomas, whom Highland State Police described as a "drifter from New York City" with no permanent address, after troopers allegedly caught him on the premises of Rizzo Ford in Highland Saturday night.

Thomas was apprehended by a State Police patrol on regular duty at about 11 p.m. Saturday, he attempted to climb out the rear window of the establishment, troopers reported.

The man was arraigned on the burglary charge before Town of Lloyd Justice Lewis Distasi. He was committed to the Ulster County Jail in lieu of $1,500 bail pending a court appearance at a later date.

County Lauds Lloyd Plans

TOWN OF LLOYD The Ulster County Planning Board has reviewed the proposed revision of the Town of Lloyd zoning ordinance, and is "delighted with the thorough and commendable work that has been performed," according to a letter from Ulster County Planning Director Herbert Heckler to Lloyd Supervisor Louis Foscaldi.

Heckler's letter to Foscaldi especially lauded the plans as "much more realistic proposals for commercial zones." The letter also praised the proposed agricultural districting, saying "the apple orchards of Clintondale and southern Lloyd are irreplaceable."

Guilty Plea To 3 Charges

William Clark, 19, of 1 Willow Street, arrested Saturday and charged with hitchhiking, criminal possession of a dangerous drug, sixth degree, and criminal possession of a narcotic implement, pleaded guilty to all three charges today in City Court.

City Judge Hubert Richter set sentencing for Oct. 23.

A pre-sentencing investigation will be conducted prior to that date.

Four Staff Positions Are Open

Manpower Council

KINGSTON has been devised to help Applications for four staff positions on the Ulster County Temporary Manpower Council will be received this week with interviews beginning immediately according to R. C. (Josh) Randall, newly appointed administrator of the council. TMC as it is to be known, will administer Federal Emergency Employment Act funds totaling $406,500 proposed for the county's environmental improvement program which Staff positions available include account clerk, typist-clerk, general foreman and environmental planner trainee. State Employment Office interviewers have job descriptions and salaries offered. Under the federal mandate only applicants listed as unemployed at the State Employment Office, or those underemployed, working part-time, are eligible. Veterans of Korea and Indo-China, on or after Aug. 5, 1964 will receive preference in hiring.

The positions will expire under a supplemental application filed by County Chairman Peter J. Savago. The Manpower Council, will decide how the new monies will be expended. Under the federal guidelines costs for administering the program may not exceed 3.2 percent of the grant. However additional administration costs may be covered by the county's n-k-i-n-d contribution. The program also limits the hiring of professionals at 33 1/3 percent of the total number to be hired.

Applicants must be residents of Ulster County and former county employees must have been unemployed for 30 days before they become eligible to accept a position under the program. The objective under President Nixon's $2.5 billion EEA Program is to provide employment opportunities in areas that exceed the national average unemployment rate.

25 School Suits Planned

The president of the New York State Federation of Teachers says his group has prepared suits against 25 upstate school boards to challenge the withholding of teacher salary increases under the presidential wage-price freeze.

The order took effect in mid-August.

Fallon said the legal action alleges the school boards are guilty of breach of contract for refusing to pay the wage scales stipulated in the contracts, some of which were signed as early as July.

"If the State Supreme Court says the suit is not within its jurisdiction, our lawyers will then decide whether to take the question before the federal courts," Fallon said.

The federation represents about 85,000 teachers throughout the state, but Fallon said the suits involve only about 5,000 teachers who have been refused pay increases under existing contracts.

He said the 25 school boards named in the litigation are located primarily in Westchester County and on Long Island but include those in Kingston, Schenectady, Buffalo and Niagara Falls as well.

KINGSTON, NEW YORK, OCTOBER 4, 1971

WASHINGTON — A blond, blue-eyed, white Christian has been howling that the State Department has discriminated against him.

The charge of reverse racial-religious discrimination has been raised by Willy Heiko Heeres, a Dutch-born American citizen, who applied to teach Indonesian at the Foreign Service Institute. He claims, indignantly, that he was turned down because of his looks and his religion.

The case has caused teeth-gritting at the State Department, which has enough trouble preventing discrimination against blacks and has just lost a discrimination suit filed by a determined woman diplomat. Now the harassed hierarchy at Foggy Bottom appear to be in danger of losing another suit to the blond Dutch-American.

For the department's confidential "Investigation File" on the Heeres case tends to back him up. The file states that Heeres lived for almost 20 years in Indonesia and had extensive language training.

Yet he was rejected as an Indonesian instructor although, as an American citizen, he should have had priority over Indonesian aliens on the Institute faculty. The Foreign Service Act declares unequivocally that aliens are eligible for such jobs only "in the absence of suitably qualified U.S. citizens."

Heeres charged that he was turned down because of his white face and because he was not a Moslem.

Taped Evidence

So flustered was the striped-pants establishment that they tape-recorded — with his acquiescence — his job interview with Dr. Warren Yates, the East Asian languages chairman. The dialogue, which we have condensed from a bootleg copy of the transcript, seems to support Heeres:

Dr. Yates: "We are looking for people who speak the language like an educated native speaker... who has a culture and religion of that country. Usually a religion... as you know and I know, most of the Indonesians are Moslems... so..."

Heeres: "The knowledge (of the language) is more important than the religion you live by..."

Yates: "All right... We are talking about a native speaker... even the looks of the language. I mean the pigment. You do not look like an Indonesian, for one thing."

Heeres' complaint was turned over to the State Department's Equal Employment Opportunity Office to investigate. Ronald Kelly, the investigator assigned to the case, got an admission out of Dr. Yates that the Institute's rules "might be discriminatory or might at least tend to discriminate."

Still, the Institute refused to hire an Indonesian instructor with blonde hair and blue eyes.

Footnote: Institute Director Howard Shollenberger declined comment on the case, pointing out that Heeres is still appealing. The brash Dutch-American, meanwhile, has demonstrated a penchant for legal action. He has filed lawsuits against State Secretary William Rogers for, among other things, not trying to get back all foreign aid from the Dutch royal family.

Ship Snafus

The Navy Ship Systems Command, with a $3 billion budget for shipbuilding and repairs, has become a happy hunting ground for contractors.

Inspectors have found that contractors make exorbitant claims against the government, often as a "possible source of additional revenue."

The classified conclusion: "The problem of shipbuilding claims is obviously acute."

The secret investigation, headed by Vice Admiral G. E. Moore II, found that Navy officials have let contractors pile up claims for design changes, late delivery of government parts and Navy mismanagement.

Claims often are submitted years after the delivery of ships, thus leaving the Navy's defenses against "gouging" severely impaired.

Navy sources estimate present and pending claims at a whopping $1 billion.

The findings, which aren't supposed to be shown to any outsider without the written permission of Admiral Moore or his boss, Admiral J. D. Arnold, disclose a pattern of costly goofs and Navy-contractor backscratching. A "harder stance" against contractor claims is urged.

Here are other allegations from the classified report:

"The contracts office of the Navy Ship Systems Command has only a limited capability to perform the cost and price analysis function."

Without giving details, the report states that "alleged cases of fraud, collusion and violations of Standards of Conduct" are now being probed in "procurement and property disposal."

Safety standards aboard Navy ships are "not adequate," say the inspectors. As we reported recently, five sailors were killed because a faulty valve fitting exploded. We have also told how the Navy's newest destroyers keep catching on fire.

Footnote: These shipbuilding snafus have led Admiral Elmo Zumwalt, the chief of naval operations, to take over some of Admiral Arnold's responsibilities. In a terse, private memo to Arnold, the Navy chief announced that from now on he would personally approve all ship construction changes that affect "military characteristics," those causing a cost increase beyond the amount budgeted, or those which will delay delivery of the ship or system.

Timely Quotes

You cannot have jawboning that is effective without teeth. —President Nixon, on his post-freeze plans.

I was under the impression that drug pushing is an illegal activity punishable in every one of the 50 states... Jack Anderson Says

White Protestant and Bias

Henry J. Taylor Says

The Kennedy Ploy

BOSTON — Sen. Edward M. Kennedy has confided to clan insiders a new link with AFL-CIO President George Meany in the presidential push he denies he is making.

Who sought out whom is unclear but Mr. Kennedy's unrevealed strategy is essentially a rerun of his 1968 behind-the-scenes operation for the presidency.

As Mr. Kennedy did in 1968, he is now systematically protesting that he is not a candidate for the White House—a mere political tactic that also was employed by brother Robert F. Kennedy for the period of President John F. Kennedy's assassination until Robert Kennedy's open declaration for the presidency.

Both required, of course, a no-chance stalking horse they could safely back and who would step aside at convention time in their favor. Robert Kennedy used his brother-in-law Sargent Shriver. Edward Kennedy in turn, used Kennedyite Sen. George McGovern, as again today, while publicly disavowing all interest in the presidency.

Inevitably, in due course, Edward Kennedy's moment of truth arrived in 1968, as he must reveal the truth again in 1972.

Readers may recall the "draft Kenney" movement contrived at the 1968 Chicago convention to defeat Hubert H. Humphrey's nomination. This was carefully fed out by Kennedy agents to newsmen and TV commentators, timed by Mr. Kennedy against Humphrey's weakest moment. Then ultimately Mr. Kennedy issued a refusal statement.

Actually, Democratic convention leaders agree that Mr. Kennedy did not decide to issue this until late on the (Tuesday) night before the balloting began only when his convention agents determined that Mr. Kennedy's hoped-for help from Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy and Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley would not come to him.

Mr. Kennedy's refusal of a vice-presidential nomination was an honest disavowal. But his pursuit of the presidential nomination was an accompanying fact. And the final defeat of Mr. Kennedy's strategy came when the big labor-controlled delegations from Michigan, Pennsylvania and Ohio refused to go along with him and notified Mr. Kennedy that they were sticking with Meany candidate Hubert H. Humphrey.

For nearly 40 years nothing has been possible within the Democratic party without the support of organized labor — a support which supplied at least $25 million and hundreds of thousands of precinct workers (vital) for Mr. Humphrey in his presidential attempt.

Now Mr. Meany's unrevealed green light to Mr. Kennedy, instead of the fatal 1968 blackball that derailed his ambitions at the Chicago convention, unblocks Mr. Kennedy's 1972 strategy. This is sharply relevant to our understanding of the future, especially as we hear Mr. Kennedy unabashedly continue his "no, no" pose, as patently false as a plaster cast on a wooden leg.

For a long time Mr. Meany did not believe Mr. Kennedy could conceivably overcome his Chappaquiddick performance. Washington heard no more blunt, scathing and outspoken critic of Mr. Kennedy's behavior in this than George Meany. And his privately stated presidential preference has been for Sen. Henry M. Jackson. In fact, Mr. Jackson's activity for the presidential nomination has sprung from this Meany preference.

But the AFL-CIO's political arm, the Committee on Political Education (COPE), conducts constant polls. And these have now convinced Mr. Meany that there will be a general killing-off between Senators Muskie, Humphrey and Jackson, that obviously Senator McGovern is totally meaningless except (again) as the Kennedy stalking horse and that the labor leaders' ticket must be constructed on Mr. Kennedy.

As a whole, they see no threat to anything or anybody in New York Mayor John V. Lindsay's switch to the Democratic party and give Lindsay no more chance for the presidential nomination than a nut under a steam hammer.

Mr. Meany's decision came after Mr. Kennedy's return here from Pakistan. His political go-between with Mr. Kennedy is now Al Barkan, COPE's director. He is also using AFL-CIO Vice-President Paul Jenkins with the Kennedy insiders here in Boston and with Mr. Kennedy himself.

The denials will come, just as Mr. Kennedy's denials of his White House attempt came in 1968, and his program to win the nomination will continue at the same time. It's the 1968 Kennedy formula all over again — but supercharged at last by the very leader who collapsed Mr. Kennedy in Chicago on his previous bid for the presidency.

Letter From 'The Walking Dead'

"Dear Mr. Bishop," a man writes from Texas. "I read an article of yours published in the Caller-Times of Corpus Christi, about drug addiction and the 'walking dead.' It is of special interest to me, for, you see, I have been placed in prison and given a 99-year sentence for my addiction. Yes, I'm an addict, not the kind you refer to, but closely related, and I have just joined the Walking Dead.

"Let me bore you with a little about myself. I was one of three children, one brother, one sister, born of poor parents. I served in the Air Force 1951 to 1955. I married in 1955 while my wife was still in high school. I put us both through college in Oklahoma by working.

"We have five children, two boys, three girls. No one in our family has ever been in jail. Anything I have, or used to have, I earned. I say this, not bragging, only to show that addicts come in all sizes, shapes and forms.

"On September 7, 1969, I had a coronary occlusion. It can happen to anyone. Hospital — 7 weeks; home, 6 weeks. My business began to fall apart, but it couldn't be helped. Health comes first.

"Speaking of health, I was on the bed with my oldest son, who is twelve years of age, watching t.v. A commercial came on from one of our home stations, warning about narcotics. As I say, he was only twelve, but to make conversation, I asked if he knew anything about drugs. 'Sure Dad,' he said candidly, 'there is all kinds of dope around; I see it every day.'

"As I slowly sat up in bed in horror, he prattled on about all kinds of pills, heroin, weed and pot. He sounded to me like a pharmacist. 'Pat,' I said casually, 'have you ever taken any...?' He hesitated. Then he grinned. 'I've smoked pot,' he said. I'm afraid my voice began to crack.

"Where do you get it?' I said. 'Oh,' he said, 'at the school, here at the apartment, or the Drive-in.' I begged him to tell me who was pushing it. 'Dad,' he said, 'I can't. Those people would really hurt me. I had a twelve-year-old son who was terrified of his friends.'

"Emotionally, I went overboard. Out of my mind, I told my wife we would sell out, business and apartment, and move out into the country where the air is clean, and pray to God we weren't too late.

"I was panicky to leave at once. I went to my bank and tried to borrow money on a farm home. No money was tight. I tried all the bankers and savings and loans.

"They had no money for a farm. The doctor looked me over and said if I didn't quit worrying and smoking I would not live another year. He didn't know that my heart was the small problem. I went after the pushers. On two occasions, I called the police and told them where the pusher was. Nothing happened. I furnished his name and address. Nothing. One day at the school I watched him make contact with 11 kids. No police car answered my call for help.

"Two boys were arrested for using pot. No one arrested the man who sold it. I kept telling myself that I had to get my children away from it. I had to. On August 2, 1970, I bought a gun. Two men and I robbed a bank of $81,000. I took $40,000 to my lawyer and told him my brother was helping me to buy a farm selling for $28,000.

"I don't know how they do it, but the FBI men were waiting for me. I begged the lawyer to take the money quick and at least buy the farm for my wife and kids. He couldn't. No one was hurt in the robbery, and the guns were empty, so I'm in for 99 years. I don't ask mercy. The guy who dances must be ready to pay the fiddler.

"We have the most intelligent, religious and wonderful country in the world, but we have fallen asleep and do not recognize our enemies. Dope has done more damage than the attack on Pearl Harbor. I'm broken. I'm helpless. I can't fight in prison. But you can. Organize against organized crime. We're bigger than they are. America needs prevention, not cure.

"Still, there is a happy ending to my story. My brother has a good farm-house. There, my wife and children are content. School grades are up; behavior and discipline are good. They are all much closer and spend more time together.

"My twelve-year-old is fourteen. He's a bus boy. After only three weeks he was promoted to head bus boy — think of that! He bought his own clothes, a bike, and had his teeth fixed. He's saving up for two tape recorders, so that we can speak directly to each other.

"If I ever get out, I'm going to become a probation officer and try to turn out hundreds of bus boys..."

Woman for the Court

Since Mrs. Richard M. Nixon has admitted that she has been talking up the idea of a woman for the Supreme Court, names of possible candidates have come thick and fast to the White House from all parts of the country. As the President has not discouraged the idea, the chances of his appointing a woman to one of the two vacancies have increased and, with them, the names of prospects.

For instance, the American Association of University Women has suggested as qualified: Judge Shirley M. Hufstetler of California; Judge Susie Marshall Sharp, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina; Judge Constance Baker Motley, of New York; Congresswoman Martha Griffith of Michigan; Judge Cornelia Kennedy, also of Michigan; Patricia Robert Harris, former dean of law at Harvard University.

Among others considered eligible are Mrs. Rita S. Hauser, a New York lawyer and Republican, who was appointed by President Nixon to the United Nations in 1959 as U.S. representative to the Human Rights Commission.

There has hardly been a time in the last 40 years when women have not been suggested for the Supreme Court, whenever a vacancy occurred. Perhaps the time has arrived for such a candidate. The country may be of a mind to accept one now, because of the fact that women citizens outnumber men and we have become used to the one man, one vote concept.

A 'Meritocracy'

When University of California professor Arthur R. Jensen suggested in 1969 that there may be inherited, racial differences in intelligence, he blew the lid off a subject that is taboo in psychological and sociological circles.

The result was a controversy that simmers even today, despite the fact that the question was and is academic.

It is academic because, for all our proclaimed ideals and our progress toward realizing them, we have not yet built a society of equal opportunity for all. It will remain academic so long as artificial obstacles having nothing to do with intelligence are, intentionally or unintentionally, placed in the way of any person or group.

A truly egalitarian society in which people are judged by their ability, not by skin color or background, is the dream of all dedicated social scientists, educators and lawmakers. It may turn out to be a nightmare.

In the very creation of an egalitarian society, we may actually be paving the way for a rigid caste system in the United States—a "meritocracy"—based on inherited intelligence.

This is the prediction of Richard Herrnstein, a Harvard University psychologist.

"What is most troubling about this prospect is that the growth of a virtually hereditary meritocracy will arise out of the successful realization of contemporary political and social goals," he writes in a recent issue of The Atlantic.

This is because the more we succeed in achieving relatively unimpeded social mobility, adequate wealth, the end of drudgery and a wholesome environment for all, the more will inborn ability loom as THE essential prerequisite for success.

Most experts now agree, he says, that inheritance accounts for about 80 per cent of intelligence and the environment and other factors account for the remaining 20 per cent. As these secondary factors are rendered the same for all (equal health care, equal education, etc.), inheritance will carry even greater weight.

Schools will no longer serve as ladders to success. More important than education will be the intelligence of a child's parents. The able people will naturally swim to the top, and they will produce able offspring who will remain at the top. A meritocracy will arise that will defy attempts to improve the mobility of those at the bottom.

"To be unemployed may run in the genes of a family about as certainly as bad teeth do now," says Herrnstein.

In the past the privileged classes were not necessarily superior biologically to the downtrodden, which is why revolutions had a fair chance of success. Today, by removing artificial barriers between classes, society is encouraging the creation of biological barriers.

UNICEF Plea

Editor: The Freeman:
October (Halloween) is the time of year we particularly think of UNICEF. Every year there are letters for and against this organization. Many responsible, concerned people are opposed because some money goes to communist countries (3 out of 112). The "UN" in UNICEF does stand for "UNITED NATIONS" (of which the U.S. is a member).

In my opinion a communist can make communism sound very attractive to people who suffer from hunger, sickness, illiteracy, and other ills — so we are dealing a direct blow at communism by supporting organizations which seek to alleviate these conditions.

We have become very sophisticated in talking about a "billion dollars" without "seeing" a single coin — or deploring the fact that a "million people" are starving without "seeing" a single human face.

To me the largest letter in UNICEF is the "C" which stands for "CHILDREN" — children in need and children helping their pennies.

Picture on a person-to-person level — 12 people in a room with food and medicine: 12 children sick and hungry. Can you picture any of us seeing greed, race, etc. — or saying "Sorry kid. Can't help you, you're a communist!" I picture 12 pair of hands reaching out to a CHILD and 12 hearts grateful to belong to a country with the abundance and technology to help.

Sincerely,
M. PEARSON

Ontario Board

Editor, The Freeman:

Had the Ontario Board of Education been more modest in its public posturing over the wage freeze regulations, it might not find it necessary now, to "censure" all those unlucky officials who have to interpret that law. (Freeman, September 22). The original statement by the Board of Education (Freeman, August 30), to the effect that there would be no wage freeze at Ontario, was misleading. As federal law, it always applied. The only question was whether wages were frozen at the level paid until June 30, or at the level the Board was prepared to pay after July 1. And that question, not surprisingly, was answered by federal, not local authorities. If the Board of Education had not tried to make public relations hay in President Nixon's hayfield, it wouldn't have suffered the embarrassment which it now tries to dispel with its gesture of "censure."

None of which would be worth pausing over did not the Board's resolution of censure contain the seed of yet another possible misunderstanding. Relations between Ontario teachers and the Board of Education, as reported in both the Board's resolution and Wednesday's Freeman, are strained. But the Board and the public would be mistaken if they believed that the teachers' anger originated with the wage freeze. The fact is that the Ontario teachers have no contract. And there is no contract because the Board decided last spring to end negotiations and use their power under the Taylor Law to force a settlement on the teachers. So it was right here at Ontario, not in remote national councils — here, in actions taken by the Board itself, that the origins of the present strained relations are to be found. No one should believe it all started with the wage freeze.

Sincerely,
BERNARD H. LAPO JR.

Rocky's Role

Editor, The Freeman:
Governor Rockefeller's indifference to the tragic loss of human life at Attica should come as no surprise. His assertion that the killing which took place constituted "justifiable homicide" is in keeping with a "glorious" Rockefeller tradition.

It should not be forgotten that Nelson Rockefeller is the son of John D. Rockefeller, Jr. who was responsible for the slaughter of the helpless men, women, and children of Ludlow, Colorado in 1914.

The tragedy of Attica has again exposed the inherent cruelty and viciousness of the social order established by capitalism. Surely the time has come to abolish it.

Rockefeller Plans To Remain in Albany

ALBANY, N. Y. (UPI) — Reports that Governor Rockefeller is getting ready to leave Albany before the end of his current term are "a lot of hokum."

Some of his close friends expressed that opinion when asked about widespread rumors Rockefeller is "fed up" and wants to vacate the state executive mansion. One persistent report has been that Rockefeller will join President Nixon in Washington next year, either as vice president or a member of the cabinet.

"All these rumors are a lot of hokum," a friend said. "Nelson is a fighter and, certainly, he would never think of leaving his job when there is so much to be done."

"Look at the way he is pushing for approval of his $2.5 billion bond issue. Does he act like a man packing his bags?"

Speculators seem to jump on every move the governor makes to support their belief he will not complete his fourth term. First, it was the fact the legislature rejected many of his 1971 legislative programs in the name of economy.

Those close to the governor agree he is not a "stand pat" administrator and was upset when he had to abandon some of the programs because of a lack of funds. But, he was willing to give it a try, they added.

Events that followed strengthened Rockefeller's original plans. The dismissal of thousands of state employees to cut the payroll didn't work out and most of those who had been given "pink slips" are back on the job.

"We had to cut back on some prison reform programs and we certainly were unable to hire and train enough prison guards because of needed money," an administrative source said. "This fact helped to contribute to what happened at Attica. Now, we are going to have to spend a lot more on our prison program than we originally planned."

Attica renewed reports Rockefeller planned to quit as governor. But, the people who should know say it made him more determined than ever to bring about prison reforms.

And, of course, there is always the professional crystal ball reader who sees Vice President Spiro Agnew on the way out and Rockefeller becoming Nixon's running mate next fall. They attempt to support their views by pointing to Rockefeller's alleged swing to the right.

One "prophet" recently said Rockefeller would leave Albany so that Lt. Gov. Malcolm Wilson would have time to make a record for himself before the 1974 gubernatorial campaign. "Don't you think Nelson wants to give Malcolm a few years of seasoning before 1974?"

To that the Rockefeller aide replied: "The governor is concerned about what's going on today. He would never quit while there is work to be done. All those rumors are just plain hokum."

Police Investigate Dominican Kidnaping

CARACAS (UPI) — Police today questioned members of the household of Mrs. Thelma Frias, the Dominican consul-general who was found in "voluntary seclusion" Sunday, to determine whether her reported kidnaping and a ransom demand of $1 million were faked.

Police found the 56-year-old diplomat early Sunday morning in the apartment of a Venezuelan woman and her infant child in a working class section of the city.

Remberto Uzcategui, director of Venezuela's intelligence police, told newsmen he could not say because of her diplomatic status whether Mrs. Frias had faked the kidnaping. But he said three persons close to her, including her adopted son and vice consul, Fausto Frias, were being questioned.

Also being questioned were Angel Castellanos, a Dominican student who lives with the family, and Argentina Ramos, Mrs. Frias' Dominican maid.

Uzcategui also would not comment on whom police believe authored the two ransom notes demanding $1 million for her return. It was the highest amount ever demanded for a kidnaped diplomat.

"She was found in a state of voluntary seclusion in an apartment near the Intercommunal Freeway in the El Valle District," Uzcategui said.

With her was Mrs. Isvelia Virginia Castillo Vasquez, who told newsmen that Mrs. Frias had come to stay a few days. When asked why she had not called police when the story of the kidnaping was released, she replied, "I'm not a member of the police. That has nothing to do with me."

Uzcategui said Mrs. Frias was to take a psychiatric examination today. A foreign ministry source said it was likely she would be asked to leave the country.

Mrs. Frias was reported kidnaped Wednesday morning. Castellanos told police he last saw Mrs. Frias shortly after 8 a.m. when they left her office together. Mrs. Frias said she was going to a nearby bank.

When Castellanos returned, he said he found a ransom note under the apartment door. It demanded $1 million. A second note was found in a telephone booth the next day by the diplomat's adopted son.

Guilty Pleas By Pair to Reduced Charge

KINGSTON Charles Soltys, 29, of Lake Katrine and Daniel Villalobos, 26, also of Lake Katrine, arrested July 15, and charged with obscenity second degree, pleaded guilty to a reduced charge of disorderly conduct today in city court.

City Judge Hubert A. Richter sentenced Soltys to 15 days in the Ulster County Jail and fined him $500. Villalobos was fined $250 and sentenced to 15 days in jail.

Both men were placed on one-year probation.

Soltys and Villalobos withdrew their pleas of not guilty to obscenity second degree and pleaded to disorderly conduct. According to the penal code the disorderly conduct charge stipulates that they are "creating a hazardous or physically offensive condition by any act which serves no legitimate purpose."

The two were arrested during a raid at the central Broadway book store. Police confiscated number of what were described as pornographic books, films and materials.

Soltys was represented in court today by Attorney Francis Martocci. Villalobos was represented by Attorney Edward T. Feeney who was appointed by the court.

Soltys was described as the proprietor of the mid-city book store which police closed. Villalobos was an employee of the establishment. Both men had been free on $2,500 bail since their arrest.

TERNI, Italy (UPI) — Thieves raided the Basilica of St. Valentine, the patron saint of lovers, police said Wednesday. They said the robbers made off with an undetermined amount of wedding rings and other voice gifts. He became the patron saint of lovers in the Middle Ages, because of the belief that his feastday, Feb. 14, was the day when birds began to mate.

Fall Signals Strep Season

KINGSTON

The beginning of fall heralds the "strep" throat season, according to Dr. William C. Taylor, Ulster County Health Commissioner.

Reminding residents that from now through next spring is the period when most strep throat infections occur, he explained that they can strike anyone regardless of age or living standard and that such infections can be far more dangerous than many people may expect.

A strep infection, Dr. Taylor said, gets its name from a scientific term for the group of bacteria which produces the infectious streptococcus. He said that only certain types of these bacteria are harmful and that sore throat is the most common indication of infection by them.

Usually entering the body through the mouth, these microscopic organisms can grow rapidly, causing the familiar raw, sore feeling of "strep" throat and usually accompanying fever.

Mild to severe sore throat however is not the only possible result of this type of infection. Dr. Taylor emphasized. Strepococcal infections, especially in children, can affect other parts of the body. Scarlet fever, a serious disease in childhood, is such an infection. Rheumatic fever, in which there may be damage to the heart and mild to severe type kidney disorder, are two complications which can arise from "strep" infections.

Dr. Taylor said that because of streptococcal infections cannot be predicted, it is usually best to see a doctor whenever sore throat appears. The physician may take a swab or culture of the throat, a painless procedure that is done in order to identify the infecting organism. For streptococcal infections, specific medicine which is effective against this group of bacteria can be prescribed. Through this early detection and eradication of "strep" bacterial, later damage to vital body organs may be prevented.

Dr. Taylor cautioned that "strep" infections are contagious, the bacteria being spread mainly by direct, close contact among people. Ideal conditions for epidemic spread of bacterial are therefore found in crowded, confined areas.

Liner Sails for Leningrad With Soviet Diplomats Aboard

LONDON (UPI) — With the strains of "If I Were A Rich Man" from "Fiddler on the Roof" waiting from its loudspeakers, the liner Baltika sailed for Leningrad Sunday with a group of Soviet diplomats and officials expelled from Britain for spying.

They came to Tilbury Docks early in the day, most of them in three coaches marked "school bus." Flanking them was a fleet of cars which included that of Mikhail Smirnovsky, the Soviet Ambassador to Britain.

Dock officials said that more than 70 of the 105 Soviets accused of spying last month were on board, along with their families. Ninety of the accused spies were in Britain when the expulsion order was handed down and another 15 were barred re-entry. The 90 were given two weeks to get out of the country.

Most of them went on the 35-year-old cruise ship Baltika. Along with them went their Moskvitch and Volga automobiles, crated personal belongings, such as amenities as cases of Coca-Cola — plus other refreshments.

"They must have cleared out the embassy's whole duty-free stock," said one dock worker after helping load the ship. "Every cabin had vodka, other drinks and cigarettes."

The Soviets boarded and sailed under tight security. Police guarded every entrance to the docks area. Photographers and newsmen were kept outside the gates. Shore-to-ship telephone links were not operating.

Officials said more than 200 Soviets were aboard, plus another 70 persons — including a U.S. naval officer — who had reserved passage beforehand for the five-day voyage. Some reports said the Soviet Embassy bought out all 177 other berths at an average cost of $108 to thwart last minute attempts to book passage.

The expulsions resulted from disclosures by Oleg Lyalin, 34, a member of the Soviet Secret Police, the KGB, who defected to Britain last month. Lyalin and his pretty former secretary, who also asked for asylum, are still being kept in hiding outside London.

Diplomatic sources said the Kremlin has been unusually "slow to take reprisals" against Britain for the expulsion.

They said the fact Moscow has confined itself thus far to verbal denunciations means that either the Soviets are still preparing a move or that they hesitate to act for fear of jeopardizing one of their pet

Troops Battle Belfast Gunmen

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — British troops fought a two-hour gun battle with snipers and bomb-throwing guerrillas during predawn riot in Belfast today, the army said.

Troops believe they hit two gunmen during the battle in the Roman Catholic Mount Pottinger area of east Belfast, an army spokesman said. "One gunman was seen being dragged away screaming," he said.

No troops were reported hit. The running battle through city streets began shortly before 4 a.m. when a crowd massed around a police station to protest the arrest of two men after a fire gutted a grain store.

Terrorists believed to be members of the outlawed Irish Republican Army — IRA — hurled nail bombs and fired bullets at the troops called to break up the crowd, and when the troops fired back the two-hour battle was on, the army said.

Man Stricken Fatally Aiding Accident Victim

By JON POWERS

WOODSTOCK

A 69-year-old Shokan man sustained a fatal heart attack Sunday morning, minutes after he stopped to assist at the scene of an accident on the Willow Mt. Tremper Road in the Town of Woodstock.

Earlier in the weekend, a 14-year-old girl from the Northern Dutchess County community of Elizaville died at a Hudson hospital after she sustained injuries in a one-car crash in Columbia County Friday night.

The Woodstock crash occurred at about 11:15 a. m. Sunday when a car driven by 17-year-old Anton Eisenbell of Willow spun out of control and overturned, trapping the youth in the wreckage.

Minutes later, Griffin N. Irwin of Route 28, Shokan, stopped at the scene to offer his assistance. He suffered a heart attack while attempting to free the youth, and collapsed on the ground. He was pronounced dead at the scene by Dr. Norman M. Burg.

Woodstock constables, assisted by Doctors Ambulance attendants, freed the Eisenbell youth from neck and back injuries and a dislocated shoulder.

Woodstock police reported that Eisenbell was traveling at an apparent high rate of speed when he lost control of his car. The vehicle skidded 45 feet on the pavement, another 35 feet on the dirt shoulder of the road, and then rolled over for approximately 60 feet before coming to rest on its roof, pinning the driver inside.

Troops later made a house-to-house search of the area to try to round up suspects and find arms caches.

A search in Belfast Sunday turned up an arms haul including sophisticated plastic explosive — the first found during the current terrorist campaign. In Londonderry, doctors fought to save the life of a 5-year-old girl, hit in the head by a bullet when terrorist bombers attacked an army post in the central city Sunday night.

A British army spokesman said sentries opened fire after terrorists in a passing car threw a bomb that missed the observation post and damaged a tavern next door. The child, riding in another car with her mother and brother, was hit.

It was not certain whether the bullet came from an army rifle or a terrorist gun. The mother and her son were slightly injured but the girl was in critical condition.

Ticket Chairmen Set for Demo Dinner

KINGSTON Two prominent Democrats have been appointed as General Ticket Chairman and Patron Ticket Chairman for the upcoming Ulster County Democratic dinner to be held Sunday, Oct. 24, at the Villa Nueva, Plattekill.

Mrs. Thomas (Peggy) Johnson of Slightsburg will serve as General Ticket Chairman and Stanley J. Petro, Jr. will be Patron Ticket Chairman according to an announcement made by Lewis Kirschner, dinner chairman and Ulster County legislator, and Mrs. Marie Gorsline, dinner co-chairman.

In making the announcement, Kirschner said that he was pleased that Mrs. Johnson and Petro accepted these important tasks. "Our Democratic Party must have proper financing to be a viable political instrument. This will ensure that the two-party system will survive in Ulster County. With these two industrious workers on our dinner committee, we expect a large turnout. Reservations should be made early."

The 6:30 p.m. dinner will be preceded by hor'd oeuvre at 5:30 p.m. Tickets may be obtained from the ticket chairmen or any Democratic Committee-man or town chairman.

Both Mrs. Johnson and Mr. Petro are well-known for their work within the Democratic party having served in various capacities in local campaigns, congressional and gubernatorial campaigns and other Democratic fund-raising affairs. presently serving as treasurer. Mrs. Johnson is past president and secretary of the Ulster County Democratic Women's Club, served on various committees, and is now membership chairman. She is a member of the Ulster County Democratic Women's Division and a past committeeman from the City of Kingston and Town of Ulster.

In September, 1971 at the Ulster County Democratic Party organizational meeting, Mrs. Johnson was elected unanimously by the party committeemen to serve as secretary of the Ulster County Democratic Committee.

Petro resides at 84 Lincoln Street with his wife, the former Beverly Castor and their three children, Kathleen, 10, Peggy, 9, and Michael, 7. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Petro Sr.

Candidate Presents Fresh Views On New Paltz Councilman Post

Democratic candidate for town councilman Carol Roper is seeking to bring several fresh points of view to the town board.

Mrs. Roper says she will bring the women's point of view, the point of view of the large group of residents who have moved into New Paltz in the last several years, and the point of view of one closely connected with State University College, New Paltz.

Mrs. Roper notes there are no women presently serving in town or village government. She thinks women may have a different focus or special interest in certain areas, and should be represented in local government.

She is one of thousands who have moved to New Paltz in recent years, and she feels this segment of New Paltz needs representation on the town board.

As a faculty wife of State

Paltz Methodist Church. She is a candidate for the two-year position on the town board. She has been president of the League of Women Voters from 1969 to 1971.

University College, New Paltz, she feels she can represent this group in the town board. She says the college is the second largest employer in Ulster County and the largest in New Paltz yet it has been politically ignored.

She thinks the town board is presently aware of most of the problems in New Paltz, except in the area of housing. She does think village-town relationships could use some patching up, and she thinks she can make a contribution in that area.

Therapy Hours Extended At Benedictine Hospital

KINGSTON Extended evening hours for physical therapy outpatient treatments, as well as for the cardiovascular exercise program at Benedictine Hospital, have been announced by Dr. John A. Olivet, medical director.

Exercise is the master conditioner for the healthy, and the major therapy for the ill, he said. Benedictine Hospital, cognizant of this fact, is expanding its outpatient physical therapy services to meet the demands of the community. All outpatients must be referred by a physician, whether for specific treatment or for participation in the cardiovascular exercise program.

This latter program consists of progressively vigorous exercises of short duration aimed at improving the cardiovascular pulmonary status of the participant, as well as posture, flexibility, and agility. The emphasis is placed where the need is greatest. "The best insurance against coronary (heart) disease is exercise," Dr. Olivet said.

The physical therapy department, directed by Ralph Suris, will be open on Mondays and Thursdays from 8 a.m. to 7:30 p.m., and on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Appointments or information may be obtained by contacting the hospital.

Fastening safety belts is not a pain in the neck.

Fastening safety belts saves necks. Not to mention lives. We estimate that 8,000 to 10,000 lives could be saved every year if everyone used safety belts.

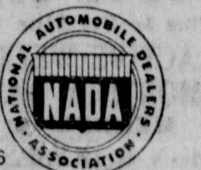

As new car dealers, it's not only frustrating for us to see people ignore their safety belts—it's heartbreaking when we think of the serious injuries that could be prevented. And the lives that could be saved.

Buckling your safety belts should be the first thing you do. Every time you get in your car. It takes only a second. And it's a habit that quickly becomes second nature. So please get the safety belt habit. For the ride of your life.

Kingston League President Attends State Meeting

KINGSTON well as cities, towns and villages, to undertake community development programs. Specifically, it authorizes the Legislature to provide for community development which includes, but is not limited to, programs for the development of adequate safe, and sanitary housing and other types of shelter or accommodations, urban and community renewal; economic prosperity and adequate employment opportunities; health, mental health, and environmental health; child care and care of the aged; transportation and communications; civic, cultural, recreational and other community facilities and services, grants and loans to non-public groups, and allow counties, as or any combination of such purposes upon a finding that a public need and public purposes exist, which cannot be met by the unaided operation of private enterprise.

In providing for such community development, it permits the State or any local government (including counties) to make expenditures out of current operating funds, or to contract indebtedness for, make loans to, or guarantee indebtedness of, any individual, partnership, trust, association, private or public corporation, all subject to present provision of Finance Articles VII and VIII of the Constitution.

To those who may say this package will cost too much, the LWV replies, "We are voting on an Amendment to the Constitution. Programs to implement it must be passed by the Legislature, and bond issues must be approved by the voters." An earlier announced bond issue to accompany the Article this fall was withdrawn by the Governor.

The CDA has the strong backing of Governor Rockefeller, as well as the support of both political parties in the last session of the State Legislature. The Citizens Union, the Community Service Society, and the State Commission on the Powers of Local Government, plus the League of Women Voters are among the organizations working for passage of CDA.

Friend's Rating System Doesn't Appeal to Her

DEAR ABBY: I recently met a very attractive older man. He is 36 and I'm 24. He's talented, intellectual and successful. He has been married and divorced twice.

I am a virgin and intend to stay that way. He knows this because I've told him so. I was completely fascinated by this man until he lent me a book on poetry in which I found a list of 36 girls with whom he had been intimate. He rated them "one star, two stars, three stars and four stars." On the bottom of the list he had my name in pencil with a four star rating. That turned me off fast.

Two questions: What kind of man would keep such a list? And what kind of man would have left it in the book?

TURNED OFF IN L. A.
DEAR ABBY: I have four children, one of whom is a Mongoloid. I'll call him Johnny, but that's not his real name.

I recently received an invitation to a wedding and reception. It was addressed to my husband and me and family. However the following P. S. was added: "Please leave Johnny at home. He is a darling boy, but he might feel out of place."

I think this was inexcusably rude. I would like your opinion of this. After all, Johnny is human too.

JOHNNY'S MOTHER
DEAR ABBY: Rudeness is only the absence of manners. Your friend lacks much.

HELEN'S MOTHER
DEAR ABBY: To the man who complained it's a "woman's world" because people always ask how the mother is when a baby is born.

When men start giving birth to babies—people will ask how the father is.

SAN FRANCISCO
DEAR ABBY: Three cheers for the 14-year-old adopted girl who wrote the letter exploding the myth about the "other" mother.

Too many bad movies, tearful novels and hysterical adopted child as traumatically disappearing into the foggy night to search for his or her "real" mother.

Baloney!
I, too, was adopted — over 40 years ago when I was an infant. My "real" parents were those two wonderful people who gave me their name, their home, their loving care and their discipline. That they were not my biological parents mattered not one bit.

An adopted child with loving parents has no "other" mother.

Grist Mill Is Included On October House Tour

The Tuttle town Grist Mill, built in 1788, will be one of the locations to be visited on the House Tour of the Study Club of New Paltz Saturday, Oct. 16 from 1 to 5 p.m. Another treat scheduled on the tour will include a visit to the working studio of one of today's talented silversmiths, William Seitz, a master of the craft. His studio which is located on Sandhill Road in Gardiner will be diagrammed on the brochure-ticket for the tour.

The Tuttle town Grist Mill was built by Selah Tuttle for whom Tuttle town was named. It has been operating constantly from its founding to this day. The mill stones are made of Pyrenees granite from France, the hardest in the world, virtually indestructible, and therefore, the best for milling.

Selah Tuttle was quite a man, renowned in these parts — only eighteen when he built the mill and twenty-five when elected to the Congress from this district.

Today the mill is owned, operated and managed by Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, who bought and took over 30 years ago, and their son George and his wife.

The two Georges do the actual milling of the many kinds of flour including whole wheat, cracked wheat, buckwheat, hard protein wheat, pumpernickel, barley flour, millet and corn meal. This mill is the only one in the United States that turns out Kosher flour.

Health Food Trend
Asked if the current trend for health foods has increased the demand for the mill's flour, Mrs. Smith (Eleanor), replied that their sales have "jumped" often with several hundreds of people coming in for it within a week. The flour is packaged and sold on the premises in the Country Store, which occupies a room of the historic old building.

The mill's products are also wholesaled to bakeries.

Mrs. Smith reports that a long-requested, well-deserved historical marker is soon to arrive to designate this interesting spot.

Artist at Work
At William Seitz' silversmiths studio, visitors will find the artist at work and teaching. He holds classes every Friday and Saturday and his students include both beginners and experts, many of whom come for miles.

Many hours of painstaking hand-crafting take place before the finished product is produced. There are racks of hammers in different sizes as well as rows of chasing tools. A few finished designs will be displayed also, possibly a sterling tray, a goblet or silver service.

Like so many people of talent, Seitz is a quiet, modest man. His wife, Laura, who will be hostess, will tell about his awards and exhibitions.

Seitz has been a devoted teacher at the Crafts Students League in New York for 18 years, often with as many as 50 students a week. Fifteen-hour days have been spent in his studio where he has held classes for the last 10 years.

He has studied with master craftsmen in Stuttgart, Germany, and in Milwaukee, Wis.

Tickets for the tour are available at The Little Red House of Gifts and at Bomze and VanVlack Pharmacy in New Paltz. Reservations may be made by phoning Mrs. John Wyman, Mrs. Jesse DuBois, Mrs. J. Reed Hummer, all of New Paltz.

Hints From Heloise

By HELOISE
GRANNY TAKES THE CAKE!

Dear Heloise: Grandchildren are great at keeping Granny sharp.

Today I baked a cake, but didn't get it iced before lunch. When I asked what flavor icing they wanted, one wanted lemon, the other chocolate—and I wanted vanilla.

When they ate lunch, I cut the cake in squares and iced each one with different flavored icing. (I used the can-type icing.)

While doing this, those old wheels started turning... cupcakes for a child's birthday party, each child ordering a light or dark cupcake and the icing they like. Wow, was I ever clever.

Then I thought about the women I entertain several times a year. I plan to have a cake bar, for I have the same problems with the ladies as with the grandchildren.

I didn't plan for this letter to sound as if I discovered this great hint. It was really my "once-removed" offspring who should get the credit.

Mrs. Carl Talbert
Well, Grandmother, give yourself a pat on the back and those grandkids a big smooch.

I know some of you gals are thinking... why go to so much trouble baking different kinds of cakes and buying or making all those different frostings?

Here's my answer! I plan to have a cake bar and when it's over and I'm cleaning up, I'll just put the leftover cakes in the freezer to be used the next time or for snacks from time to time.

Or for those kids who take their lunches, all you have to do is take the cupcake out of the freezer in the morning and by lunch time it is thawed, moist, and oh, so delicious. So you see, none of your time and effort is wasted.

I hope, Grandma, that your day is as smooth and sweet as the frostings on your cakes.

Love you,
Heloise

LETTER OF LAUGHTER
Dear Heloise:

Last night I had a dream which was all in color and all about my next-door neighbor. I saw her wash my kitchen table and lay three large, sopping wet cabbage leaves on my table where the plates should be.

On the cabbage she placed a large potato, a carrot, a boiled onion and a piece of beef and to the outside of the leaf she put the silverware. Everything was dripping.

I said, "Bee, what are you doing?" She said, "I thought this was a good way to save on dish washing."

I told her that my husband would never eat off a cabbage leaf, so with a look of disgust, she took her hand and swept everything back into the big kettle, saying, "Oh well, we'll do it sometime when you come to my house."

Now I've got two things puzzling me. First, is this a premonition of how we are going to eat the next time I pay her a visit, and, second, if I was dreaming, how come I was so tired when I woke up? Could it have been from washing dishes?

Mrs. C. H.
Dear Heloise:

I just discovered how to keep pretty flowers on our loved ones' graves, no matter how windy or what the weather may be.

Take a two-pound coffee can, punch small holes in the plastic lid, then place a heavy object in the can or pour about an inch of concrete in the can and let it harden.

Select some artificial flowers and arrange them in the holes, put aluminum foil around the can and for the finishing touch, add a pretty bow.

I was quite pleased with the ones I made, not only because they were practical and very pretty, but because they were things I had made myself.

Mary I. Lecuyer

The Daily Freeman Readers: THIS INTRODUCTORY OFFER brings you

$600.00-A-MONTH TAX-FREE CASH WHEN YOU GO TO THE HOSPITAL

Send No Money—You have 10 days to examine policy in your own home—at no risk ★ Pays you cash at the rate of $600.00 a month for each hospital stay... even for life, if necessary.

★ Guaranteed Renewable for Life.

★ Pays in addition to any other companies' coverage you have—including Medicare.

★ Pays all cash direct to you (not to doctor or hospital).

No salesman will call—No medical examination required—No age limit ACT NOW—THE SOONER YOU ENROLL, THE SOONER YOU AND YOUR FAMILY WILL BE PROTECTED.

ONE out of two families will have someone in the hospital this year! It could be you—or some beloved member of your family—tomorrow... next week... next month. Sad to say, very few families have anywhere near enough coverage to meet today's soaring hospital costs. These costs have doubled in just a few short years.

Stop for a moment. Think how much a long stay in the hospital will cost you or a loved one. How would you ever pay for costly, but necessary, X-rays, doctor bills, drugs and medicines? What would you do if your pay check stopped, but living expenses kept going on the same as ever? The same rent, phone, food, all the day-to-day expenses that never stop.

What is the average breadwinner to do? We believe we have the answer in our National Home plan that...

Pays you $600.00-a-month tax-free cash when you are hospitalized.

What a blessing it is when you know you have $600.00 cash coming in every month when you go to the hospital. You get your $600.00-a-month cash—tax-free—as long as you are confined there. Coverage begins on the very first day for sickness and accident, and benefits continue for life, if necessary.

Now, this low-cost plan from National Home enables you to enjoy valuable cash protection immediately. As soon as you receive your policy, read it carefully, note the many benefits. All you have to do to continue this cash protection is send in your low first month's premium within 10 days of this Effective Date.

The added protection you NEED!

All benefits of this $600.00-a-month plan are paid directly to you, in tax-free cash, in addition to whatever you may receive from your insurance with any other company! Use the money as you see fit—for hospital or doctor bills, mortgage or rent payments, to replace savings—or any necessary, but costly, expenses not covered by other hospital policies.

Everything costs more these days (need we tell you?) and hospital care is certainly no exception! While 7 out of 8 Americans have some hospital insurance, most have found it does not cover all bills that pile up when sickness or accident strikes. That's why National Home developed this low-cost plan that helps you pay hospital costs or other expenses.

We can never cancel your policy!

You can count on this wonderful protection no matter how old you become or how many times you collect from us. Your policy guarantees that we can never cancel your protection for any reason whatsoever. It is Guaranteed Renewable for Life! In addition, your rates can never be changed unless there is a general rate adjustment on all policies of this type in your entire state.

- PAYS $600.00-A-MONTH CASH for each accident or illness... beginning the very first day in the hospital—and continuing for life, if necessary.
- PAYS $420.00-A-MONTH CASH for the first three months, when you're 65 or over. And a full $600.00-A-MONTH CASH thereafter—even for life, if necessary.
- PAYS $360.00-A-MONTH CASH if a covered child is hospitalized for injury or illness. And the benefits continue for as long as necessary.
- PAYS All premiums that come due for you and all covered family members if you, the policyowner, are hospitalized for eight weeks in a row.
- PAYS All cash direct to you, and in addition to any other coverage you have—group, individual, Medicare—even Workman's Compensation.

DON'T DELAY—COMPLETE AND MAIL THIS ENROLLMENT FORM TODAY!

IF YOU ARE 65 OR OVER YOU WILL COLLECT CASH IN ADDITION TO MEDICARE!

Why are smart folks 65 or over now hastening to protect themselves with this National Home Hospital Plan in addition to what Medicare will do for them.

Even though Medicare is a great boon to folks 65 or over, it will not, of course, pay all the bills that quickly pile up as a result of illness or accident.

Regardless of your age, you still need additional health protection.

We have designed this plan as a valuable addition to whatever is paid by Medicare—or health insurance you may have with any other companies. Remember, all checks will be sent directly to you (not to the doctor or hospital), to give you that "extra" help just when you need it most. Use the tax-free cash any way you see fit. In addition, to any benefits you receive from Medicare, this National Home plan pays you at the rate of $420.00 a month for the first 3 months, and $600.00 monthly while hospitalized thereafter... even for life, if necessary.

Waiver of premium benefit.

THIS NATIONAL HOME PLAN WILL PAY ALL PREMIUMS for you and all Covered Members of your family while hospitalized should you—the policyowner—be confined for eight consecutive weeks or more. Yes, after 8 weeks of confinement, your premiums are taken care of by us. And your protection continues just the same as if you were paying the premiums yourself. Then, if you leave the hospital and must return for the same condition before you have resumed full normal activities for 90 days, we will again pay your premiums coming due while you are in the hospital. This means you pay no premiums, yet your full protection remains in force for as long as you are in the hospital. This protection applies only when the policyowner is hospitalized.

And that's not all. Suppose you have a growing family—this policy (NHNY10-669)...

Pays you $360.00-a-month cash when any dependent child is hospitalized.

When you choose Coverage for Children, all your unmarried dependent children from age one month through 18 years are covered, too! What's more, any newborn children you have in the future are covered automatically at the age of one month—at no additional cost to you. And whenever any of your children go to the hospital, this National Home plan pays you at the rate of $360.00-a-month cash, for as long as necessary.

These are the ONLY exclusions!

Your National Home policy covers every kind of sickness or accident except conditions caused by: war or any act of war; any mental disease or disorder; pregnancy, miscarriage or any consequences thereof; and any sickness or injury you had before the Policy Effective Date if that condition causing the confinement was manifested within two years prior to the effective date of the policy (during the first two years only). Meanwhile, of course, every new condition is covered.

Nationally Known and Respected

The special plans offered by the National Liberty Corporation group of companies are today helping policyowners in all 50 states—and many foreign countries as well—paying benefits at the rate of more than $1,500,000.00 a month. In addition, this is the kind of outstanding protection you may have seen in Reader's Digest, Parents', National Geographic and other leading publications.

Art Linkletter: "I think National Home's $600.00-a-month plan is just about the best financial protection you can give your family. That's why I'm happy to give this plan my wholehearted endorsement. I've made a point of getting to know some of the folks at National Home. And you won't find more decent, honest people to deal with. Believe me, when you need them, they'll be there to help you. That's why I cannot imagine anyone passing up the chance, to enroll in this health plan."

FAST, RELIABLE CLAIM SERVICE WHEN NEEDED MOST.

The National Liberty group, helping policyowners nationally and in many foreign countries, pays claims promptly and reliably. Since you never really know how good a policy is until you have to make a claim, we think you'll be interested in what some of our policyowners have to say.

"I received my check for $120.00 in the mail today for the time I recently spent in the hospital. Believe me it will sure help out on my bills, as I have not yet returned to work."

—Walter T. Smith, GALION, OHIO

"To me it is very hard to believe that a large company like yours takes such a personal interest in your policyholders. We are very pleased with the prompt and courteous service. Thank you."

—Joseph Jones, SCRANTON, PENNSYLVANIA.

"I was more than satisfied with the way my claim was handled. One couldn't ask for better service and the 'get well soon' message was one of the nicest thoughts on your part. I thank you sincerely."

—Marguerite Lindau, DULUTH, MINNESOTA

National Liberty commended in U.S. Congressional Record

National Liberty Corporation, parent of National Home Assurance Company of New York has been commended in the United States Congressional Record for bringing low-cost insurance to the general public: "National Liberty deserves recognition for providing service beyond the expected, service willingly offered to those who are not being cared for in other ways. This is the secret of success for its low-cost insurance plans. With the highest public interest at heart, the National Liberty Corporation group of companies combines reliability and quality of service with noteworthy price advantages. It is to be commended on its leadership and vision in this field of human welfare."

Here are your low rates.

The following rate chart shows how little it costs to cover yourself, your spouse and any adult dependent. Naturally, at these low rates, we can issue you only one policy of this type. Each adult, 16 or over, pays the rate shown for his or her age.

Age at Enrollment	Monthly Premium per Adult
16-44	only $4.90
45-49	only $5.60
50-54	only $6.30
55-74	only $7.00
75-79	only $8.50
80-84	only $9.90
85-89	only $10.60
90 & over	only $11.40

Only $2.70 more per month covers all your unmarried dependent children... from the age of one month through 18 years. Newborn children are covered automatically at the age of one month—at no additional cost.

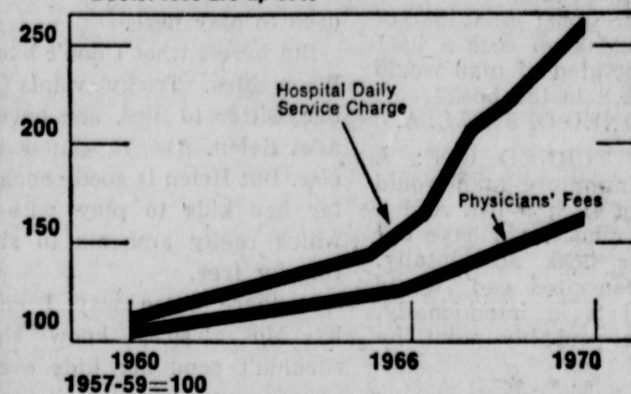

NOTE: The regular monthly premium shown here (for age at time of enrollment) will not automatically increase as you pass from one age bracket to the next! Once you have enrolled in this National Home plan, your rate can never be changed because of how much or how often you collect from us—or because of advanced age—but only if there is a general rate adjustment, up or down, on all policies of this type in your entire state!

YOUR QUESTIONS ANSWERED ABOUT THIS NATIONAL HOME PLAN

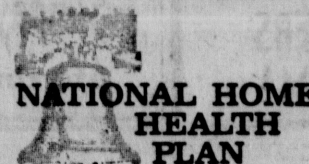

1. How much will I be paid when I go to the hospital?
You will receive cash at the rate of $600.00 a month ($200.00 a day). When you're 65 or over, you collect (in addition to any Medicare benefits) $420.00 a month for the first 3 months, and $600.00 monthly while you remain continuously hospitalized thereafter. And you collect cash even if you're in the hospital for only one day—and benefits are paid in full for as long as you're hospitalized... even for life, if necessary.
2. Do you pay me cash when my children go to the hospital?
You collect cash at the rate of $360.00 a month whenever any of your children (age 1 month through 18 years) go to the hospital—if Coverage for Children is added to the basic plan. Coverage begins on the first day and continues for as long as necessary. And if you have a growing family—as soon as any newborn child is one month old, he, too, is covered—automatically... at no additional cost.
3. Suppose I'm hospitalized for a long time and can't meet my premium payments?
If you—the policyowner—are hospitalized for 8 consecutive weeks or more, this plan will PAY ALL PREMIUMS that come due for you and all Covered Members of your family while you are confined to the hospital beyond the initial 8-week period. You aren't expected to pay us back, either.
4. Will my protection be cancelled because I have too many claims?
Not only you can cancel—the Company cannot—no matter how many claims you have or how old you become... or for any other reason whatsoever. A GUARANTEED RENEWABLE FOR LIFE clause has been written into your policy, and we're bound by it. In addition, your rates can never be raised unless there is a general rate adjustment on all policies of this type in your entire state.
5. What is not covered by this policy?
The only conditions not covered are those caused by: war or any act of war; any mental disease or disorder; pregnancy, miscarriage or any consequences thereof; and any sickness or injury you had before the Policy Effective Date if that condition causing the confinement was manifested within two years prior to the Effective Date of the policy (during the first two years only). Meanwhile, of course, every new condition is covered immediately.
6. Does this plan pay in any hospital?
You are covered for care in the hospital of your choice, except, of course, a U.S. Government hospital or a nursing or convalescent facility.
7. Besides saving money—are there any other advantages to joining this plan now?
Yes. A very important one is that you don't need to complete a lengthy, detailed application—just the brief Enrollment Form in the corner of this page. Also, no extra requirements for eligibility, and no "waivers" or restrictive endorsements can be put on your policy!
8. How do I enroll?
Fill out the brief Enrollment Form and mail to: National Home, Valley Forge, Pa. 19481.

NO-RISK GUARANTEE

We will send your National Home policy by mail. Examine it carefully in the privacy of your own home. Show it, if you wish, to your own insurance agent, doctor, lawyer or other trusted advisor. If you decide, for any reason, that you don't want to continue as a member of this plan, return the policy within 10 days of the Effective Date shown in your policy. You will be under no obligation of any kind, and, if you decide to keep this protection you will be fully protected while making your decision!

Octoberfest Set in Rhinebeck

RHINEBECK
An Oktoberfest in the old German tradition has been planned for Oct. 17 at the Dutchess County Fairgrounds under the auspices of the Third Lutheran Church of Rhinebeck. Some of the local "landsmann" have planned this German Folk Festival and guarantee a good time, including refreshments in the old German tradition at reasonable prices.

Music will be furnished by "The Continentals" of Kingston and entertainment will be provided by Almrausch Schuhplattlers.

Oktoberfest is slated to begin at 1 p.m. Price per adult is $1.50 and children under 12 are admitted free.

The group stated, "If you like to sing, dance, eat and make merry, be sure to set this date aside and join in a day of fun for the whole family."

Tickets are available at Von Husen's Meat Market and Kilmer's IGA Market.

Some of those involved in the preparation of the Oktoberfest are Fred Von Husen and Henry Behrens, general co-chairmen;

Fred Hatesaul and Max Kollman; entertainment and decorations: Mrs. Ernest Steubesand, refreshments: H. Henry Maertens, coordinator; and Mrs. William Dowden, publicity.

GETTING INTO THE SPIRIT(S)—Three Rhinebeck Bavarians prepare for the Oktoberfest slated for Oct. 17 at the Dutchess County Fairgrounds. They are (L) Mrs. Fred Hatesaul, Fred Hatesaul, and Mrs. Ernest Steubesand.

Sign Applications Available

NEW PALTZ
Warren H. McKeon, Regional Director for Environmental Conservation, announced today that applications for the registration of off-premise advertising signs, structures and devices, to comply with the new sign law for the Catskill Park in Sullivan and Ulster Counties, are available from Forest Rangers Herbert Lepke—Neversink; C. Peter Fish—Wawarsing; William Morse—Kerhonkson; Byron Hill—Rosendale; Aaron Van DeBogart—Mt. Tremper; Franklyn Borden—Pine Hill; Anthony Lenkiewicz—Livingston Manor. They are listed under "New York State" in their respective telephone books. Applications may also be obtained from the Regional Office of the New York State Department of Environmental Conservation, at 21 South Putt Corners Road, New Paltz, New York 12561.

The regulations are an extension of similar sign regulations which have been in effect for many years in the Adirondack Park. These regulations do not apply to advertising signs situated directly on the premises of the business place. However, signs of this kind may be subject to other Federal, State and local regulations.

McKeon said that he wishes to remind property owners and owners of off-premise signs that existing off-premise signs, structures and devices erected prior to May 26, 1969 must be registered with the Department of Environmental Conservation before Jan. 1, 1972. Following registration, they may be left in place until Jan. 1, 1976. If erected since May 26, 1969, they must be of the type and at locations allowed under permit from the Department of Environmental Conservation. After Jan. 1, 1976, all signs off premises within the Catskill Park must comply with regulations governing new signs.

According to McKeon, many business places in the Catskill Park are already taking action to have their advertising signs, structures or devices comply with the law. A new standard to be put up by a Kingston concern at the intersection of Route 28 with the Big Indian-Olivera Valley Road will comply with the new law. Each of the participating businesses will share a portion of the new standard and each individual sign will be covered by a Department permit. According to the statute, the

New Paltz GOP Candidates Release Campaign Statements

NEW PALTZ
Republican candidates George Mackey and David Jewett have released campaign statements. Mackey, a candidate for the two-year term as town council, feels the candidates should be considered as individuals rather than by party label. He is a life-long resident of the area, and is employed by IBM. Mackey feels his business experience as a project manager in IBM's Systems Manufacturing Division will aid him as a town councilman.

He is presently serving as secretary of the Town Zoning Board of Appeals, and says this indicates he can work harmoniously with members of the town board and other town and village officials.

He is associated with the Dutch Reformed Church, the American Legion, and the Boy Scouts. He is married to the former Elizabeth Rexhouse, and they have two sons.

Jewett is a New Paltz native, and a candidate for the four-year term on the town board. He is the owner and operator of the Meadow Valley Stock Farm and J.D.'s Dairy Bar. He feels being a local business man gives him a special stake in the orderly progress of the community.

Jewett's business has taken him throughout the township, and he feels he knows it as well as anyone on the present town board or running for the board.

He says his business brings him in close daily contact with townspeople, and that this will aid him as a town councilman.

He does business at the college, and his wife, Mary Jane Jewett, has been a professor of education at the college for the past 15 years. They have three daughters. He has been associated with the New Paltz Fire Department as Fire Chief, and with the Chamber of Commerce. He is a communicant of St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church.

Historic Film Record To Be Shown at Festival

KINGSTON
A film record of the historic visit of Queen Juliana of The Netherlands to Kingston, will be shown during Fall Festival activities Oct. 9.

Henry Millonig who took the movies during the 1952 visit of the monarch will show the film throughout the day a half-hour intervals. Theater for the occasion will be the county agriculture building at 74 John Street. The film taken at the climax of Kingston's 300th anniversary celebration shows all of the pageantry as well as many views of uptown Kingston and Old Dutch Church.

Plans are finalized for the many Fall Festival events planned for Oct. 9 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Ten homes and buildings will be open to the public providing inside views of pre-Revolutionary, Dutch colonial, Post-Revolutionary stone mansions, Federal and Greek revival style architectural gems in the Old Stockade area.

Hostesses and floral arrangements will be provided by the Laurel Garden Club, Little Gardens Club, Four Seasons Garden Club and the Ulster Garden Club.

Homes to be open include those of Mr. and Mrs. W. Anderson Carl, 138 Green Street; Herbert Cutler, 106 St. James Street; Mr. and Mrs. Avery L. Smith, 48 Maiden Lane; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Thayer, 43 Crown Street; and Mr. and Mrs. John Weber, 28 Green Street.

Also open and staffed for Fall Festival visitors will be the DAR Chapter House at Green and Crown Streets, Old Dutch Church and the Senate House. The county building at 74 John Street is open through the cooperation of the Ulster County Legislature.

Numerous displays are planned and uptown businessmen have slated a gala sidewalk sale in conjunction with the annual event.

Indian Chiefs Won't Accept Offer

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (UPI) — Chiefs of the Onondaga Indian Reservation in suburban New York have turned down an offer of $7,000 to permit the state to expand an expressway running through the reservation and say they "will take our own action" if the state tries to resume construction.

Birth Rate Dips
WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Census Bureau reports that the U.S. birth rate reached the lowest level since late in the depression years when it dropped in July for the fifth consecutive month.

The Bureau said Sunday that liberalized state abortion laws probably contributed to the decline of about 12 per cent between February and July. It estimated total births for the first seven months of 1971 at 2,050,000 — down about 2 per cent from the same period last year.

The state is seeking to add an additional "hill-climbing" lane to Interstate Route 81 in an area south of here that passes through reservation property. The Indians have been fighting the move with legal actions and threats to picket construction crews. The state says it has the right already through previous agreements.

Lyons said the "Onondaga chiefs refuse to compromise away any Indian lands for if we do we'll have nothing left to compromise." He said the Indians would not allow the construction for "any amount."

Chief William Lazore said if the state sent construction crews in to resume the work "we will play it by ear" and "take our own action."

Pirates and Orioles Breeze to Playoff Wins

THIRD TIME AROUND: Pirates Bob Robertson (7) is congratulated by teammate Jose Pagan (11) off dugout after Robertson hit his 3rd home run in 9th inning of Pirates-Giants game Sunday. Others in photo (18) Vic Davalillo, Dave Cash (30), Gene Clines (15) and bat-boy. (UPI TELEPHOTO)

At Candlestick: Day of Rabbit

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The sign in Candlestick Park's upper right field seats boldly proclaimed in fire engine red: "The Year of the Fox."

It may be the year for San Francisco Manager Charlie Fox. Who knows? But Sunday was the day of the rabbit ball for the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The Pirates tormented the San Francisco Giants with 15 hits, including Bob Robertson's three home runs, to secure a 9-4 victory and deadlock the home-happy National League playoffs at one game apiece.

The best-of-five game series continues Tuesday with game No. 3 in Pittsburgh.

"That guy on first," base (Robertson) was nasty," said Fox, pointing to the Pirate slugger's playoff-record performance that drove in five runs, the winning margin.

"Robertson was the whole story today," agreed Pittsburgh Manager Danny Murtaugh.

Oh, boy, was he ever! The brawny, carrot-topped slugger hadn't reached the fences in six weeks. After hitting a double in the second inning, he went to work with circuit shots in the fourth, seventh and ninth.

"Six weeks without a homer is too long for a man with his power," said Murtaugh.

Robertson, himself, was just happy to be playing—let alone to turn out to be the hitting hero. He once sat out a season with a kidney ailment.

"I am thankful to be in baseball after the scare I received from my kidney trouble," said Robertson amidst the joyful euphoria of the Pirates' locker room.

While Robertson turned on the power, reliever Bob Miller helped to turn off the Giants with four innings of lofty work.

His performance was almost lost in Robertson's herculean performance.

"Miller did a great job," said Murtaugh. "He hasn't been outstanding lately. But I thought he was outstanding out there for four innings against the Giants."

The right-hander had some tough work to do when starter Dock Ellis, the Pirates' sullender, 19-game winner, got in hot water in the sixth inning. The first two batters reached base, one hit by a pitch and the other with a base hit, and Miller came in to protect a 4-2 lead.

Miller got pinch-hitter Frank Duffy to bunt foul for a third strike, but slipped deeper into quicksand when he walked Ken Henderson to load the bases. Then the cool reliever struck out Tito Fuentes and got out of the jam when Willie Mays lined to Roberto Clemente in right.

"If there was a key play, it was when Miller struck out Fuentes in the sixth," said Murtaugh.

"I struck him out with a fast ball on the outside," declared Miller. "I noticed Saturday the pitch he hit for a home run was inside and he hit a couple of other good balls off inside pitches."

"I was determined to keep the ball outside on him. I'd have to say this was the most satisfying game since joining Pittsburgh, even though I didn't get through the ninth inning."

Miller served up three straight hits to open the ninth, including Willie May's two-run homer, before Dave Giusti came in to get the side out.

Along with the home runs by Robertson and Mays, Gene Clines also belted one in the fifth to give the Pirates and Giants a total of seven for the two game set in San Francisco.

"I think these two clubs are primarily the same," noted Murtaugh. "It's not that the pitching isn't good, it's just that both are good hitting clubs. Our series have been like this all year."

The Pirates' victory, first ever in a playoff and only third in Candlestick Park in the last 14 games, doesn't necessarily give them a psychological edge as the teams head back to Pittsburgh, says Murtaugh.

"I don't believe in home team advantages," said Murtaugh. "I think if you're good enough to win a division title, then you're good enough to win home or away."

"I just play the players I think we can win on any given day and hope they're hot. The hot team will win the pennant."

Allen's Redskins — They're for Real

By JOE CARNICELLI
UPI Sports Writer

Washington fans may not recognize that strange group that comes home finally next Sunday to play Houston but they will know one thing — master builder George Allen has put together the National Football Conference's only unbeaten team.

Allen made over 20 trades after taking over the Redskins last winter and has put together a veteran unit that does not include one rookie. The Redskins, on the road for their first three games, moved into sole possession of first place in the National Conference East Sunday by stunning the Dallas Cowboys 20-16 in a battle of unbeatens.

Charlie Harroway ran 57 yards for a touchdown on the third play of the game and Bill Kilmer, subbing for the injured Sonny Jurgensen, threw a 50-yard TD pass to Roy Jefferson, for a 14-0 halftime lead and Curt Knight added field goals of 25 and 32 yards in the last two quarters to hold off the Cowboys.

Harroway ground out 111 yards and Larry Brown rushed for 81 more as the Redskins tore holes in the Dallas line and gained over 200 yards rushing.

"We gave them two easy touchdowns for lack of quick movements," said Cowboys' Coach Tom Landry. "We weren't moving quick enough into the holes. It is a simple case of knocking them out or lead."

getting knocked out and we got knocked out. I just didn't see anyplace that Washington didn't move the ball well."

Allen, who has yet to lose to Landry's Cowboys in regular or post-season play, was overjoyed at seeing the Redskins win their first three games for the first time since 1943. "Our guys were in like New Year's Eve," he said. "We had to make up to the (Washington) Senators' coming to Texas. We had to make the folks back home proud of us."

In other National Conference play, Detroit outlasted Atlanta 41-38. San Francisco ripped Philadelphia 31-3. The New York Giants edged St. Louis 21-20 and Los Angeles downed Chicago 17-3. The New York Jets rallied past Miami 14-10, Baltimore blitzed New England 23-3, Pittsburgh beat San Diego 21-17 and Kansas City whipped Denver 16-3 in American Conference play while in interconference play, New Orleans tied Houston 13-13, Green Bay stopped Cincinnati 20-17 and Minnesota walloped Buffalo 19-0.

Cleveland takes on Oakland tonight.

Errol Mann's 13-yard field goal with 4:35 left in the game proved decisive as the Lions topped Atlanta. A 52-yard fumble return for a score by Mike Weger. Ron Jessie's 97-yard kickoff return and a 56-yard TD pass from Greg Landry to Larry Walton on the last play of the half helped Detroit take a 28-24 halftime lead.

Landry threw another TD pass to Charlie Sanders and Mann kicked two field goals in the second half to offset Bob Berry's 25-yard touchdown pass to Ken Burrow. Tom Hayes' 20-yard run with a blocked punt for another Falcon score.

John Brodie threw two TD passes to Ted Kwalick and one to Vic Washington to lift San Francisco over the Eagles and rookie Rocky Thompson returned a kickoff 93 yards for one score and Fran Tarkenton passed for two others to lead the Giants over St. Louis.

Lance Rentzel's 50-yard touchdown run on an end around play helped the Rams beat Chicago for their first victory of the season and George Nook's second TD of the period—a two-yard run with two minutes left to play—boosted the Jets over Miami for their first triumph.

Jim O'Brien kicked field goals of 42, 41 and 50 yards and Tom Matte and Don Nottingham bulled over for scores to pace Baltimore over the Patriots while Terry Bradshaw ran five yards for a last period score and Pittsburgh's defense stopped San Diego three times inside the six-yard line in the last five minutes to beat the Chargers.

Aaron Brown plucked Don Horn's fumble out of the air and raced 68 yards for a score as Kansas City beat Denver and Charles Durke, released by Houston last month, kicked a 37-yard field goal with five seconds left to help New Orleans tie the Oilers.

Soccer Hawks Beaten; Potsdam St. Wins, 2-1

POTSDAM

A few questionable calls by the officials and plenty of missed opportunities spelled defeat for New Paltz State's soccer team here Saturday as the Hawks were beaten by Potsdam State, 2-1.

Dan Gotham tallied at 16:55 of the first period for the Bears, but New Paltz tied the score at 17:47 of the second on a penalty kick by Jerry Soulios. However Potsdam's Bob Gaudin took a pass from Dave Pascual at 17:30 of the third quarter and beat Jamie Lipman for the deciding goal.

The Hawks had pinned Potsdam deep in its own end in the early minutes without scoring and had a shot go in and out of the net in the third without it being seen by the referee. Later an official was screened out of the action when a Potsdam player touched the ball with his hand in the penalty area. Had he seen that one, New Paltz would have had another penalty kick attempt.

But New Paltz Coach Bob Durkin admitted that besides those bad breaks his team still

New Winning Formulas For Jets and Giants

By COMBINED SERVICES

The St. Louis Cardinals have absorbed another defeat in the National Football League, one coach Bob Holloway says could have been turned into victory except for a fumble.

Meanwhile, Cornerback Earlie Thomas practically picked Paul Warfield's pocket to put the New York Jets into position and the crazily bouncing football did the rest in a 14-10 win over Miami.

"If we knew we were going to fumble, then we would have gone for a touchdown," said Holloway, who elected instead to settle for a field goal that fell short, 21-20, against the New York Giants Sunday.

St. Louis trailed 21-17 and had the ball on the New York 15 with 5:48 to play when Holloway chose to try for the field goal on fourth down. The Cards mentor figured his team would get the ball back and move into position for a winning three-point play.

The plan might have worked as St. Louis regained possession moments later, but MacArthur Lane fumbled finishing a 10-yard run and cornerback Willie Williams recovered to extinguish the Cards hopes.

New York had scored its points in the first half as Rocky Thompson took a kickoff 93 yards for a TD. Later Fran Tarkenton climaxed a 75-yard drive with a 10-yard pass to end Bob Tucker. Fran scored the third six-pointer on a two-yard trot early in the second quarter.

The Jets' Thomas stole Bob Griese's pass to Warfield with ten minutes left in the NY-Miami battle and the Dolphins leading, 10-0. Earlier went 11 yards with the interception to Miami's 44 and the Jets drove in from there with George Nock scoring from the one.

The came a crazy bounce.

Steve O'Neal punted from his own 10-yard line as New York apparently headed for a three-point loss with five minutes to play. But Dolphin safetymen Dick Anderson couldn't get out of the way of the ball when Miami let it go and the Jets recovered on the opposition 37.

The Jets took it in with Nock going over from the two with 1:55 to play.

"Anderson should have known where the ball was," said Miami Coach Don Shula. "We kept missing in scoring chances all afternoon. There is no excuse for us losing that ball game."

"I'd say we're due for a break," said injured Jets quarterback Joe Namath. "Luck always plays a big part in pro football. For a change, ours was good."

Oakland Talks About an Ump

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Baltimore Orioles talked about heroes while the bitterly disappointed Oakland A's talked about an umpire after the defending champion Orioles beat the upstart A's 5-3 in the opener of their best-of-five American League playoff series.

The teams went at it again today in the second game of the set with righthander Jim "Catfish" Hunter hoping to succeed where ace Vida Blue failed and gain an even break for the A's before the series switches to the West Coast Tuesday. Left-hander Mike Cuellar, one of four Baltimore pitchers who won at least 20 games this season, pitched for the Orioles.

Despite the key opening game victory, Baltimore Manager Earl Weaver wouldn't even talk about the possibility of the Orioles sweeping the American League playoffs for the third straight year.

"We have one and they don't have any," Weaver said when asked if he anticipated a sweep. "We'll be at the ball park today to play just that game. So will they. It doesn't help to think about a sweep one way or the other."

Weaver preferred to talk about the clutch performance of his players, who rallied for four runs in the seventh inning off Blue, the A's sensational 24-game winner.

"We battled Blue," said Weaver. "We kept our bat on the ball. We conditioned ourselves to stay away from the pitch up and around the shoulders. We figured eventually he would slow down and the ball would stop jumping."

The ball stopped jumping for Blue in the seventh inning as Frank Robinson led off with a walk. After Boog Powell struck out, Brooks Robinson singled Frank to second. Blue appeared to have worked out of the jam when he got hot-hitting Andy Etchebarren to fly out as Frank Robinson took third.

Then came the first of Weaver's heroes. Light-hitting Mark Belanger ripped a single to center, scoring Frank Robinson, Brooks taking second.

"That was the key to the inning," noted Oakland Manager Dick Williams. "That put them behind only 3-2."

Now, Weaver turned to the bench that helped him win the American League East title by 12 games, sending up pinch hitter Curt Motton.

Motton slashed a 3-1 pitch from Blue into the left field corner for a double, scoring Brooks Robinson and tying the score 3-3.

At this point the A's got hot under the collar. They thought plate umpire Hank Soar made some dubious calls and that Motton should have been a strikeout victim.

"He (Soar) called what he saw to the best of his ability, I guess," commented Blue after the game. "Everybody makes mistakes. I'm not saying he made mistakes, but the umpiring wasn't the best."

Grand Prix To Cevert

WATKINS GLEN, N. Y. (UPI) — Francois Cevert has learned his lesson well from world driving champion Jackie Stewart.

The 27-year-old French rookie, one of the "young lions" of the Formula One circuit, took over Sunday when the car of Stewart, his Tyrrell teammate, failed and went on to win the Grand Prix of the United States by 40 seconds over Jo Siffert's BRM.

But seven laps from the end, Cevert, who had finished second to Stewart twice this year and was leading one lap from the end of the Italian Grand Prix, thought he might have to go back for a few more lessons.

"Jackie is a good teacher," Cevert said. "He never takes chances, and he is definitely the best on the circuit this year. But I wanted to be second best. What's wrong with that? I was running strong, and the car raced real well, but just seven laps from the end I almost hit a wall."

"I spun trying to avoid Denis Hulme's car when he hit the wall. I hit some oil and it almost ruined everything."

The victory before a record crowd of 110,000 earned more than $50,000 out of the total purse of $267,000 for Cevert, who averaged 115.092 mph for 199.243 miles or 99 laps over the new 3.377-mile course.

Two of the other "young lions," Swede Ronnie Peterson in a March and New Zealand's Howden Ganley in a BRM, finished third and fourth and Stewart was fifth in the field of 29 drivers from 13 nations.

Stewart, favored to match the late Jimmy Clark's record of seven Grand Prix victories in a season after taking the pole position with a lap of 118.445 mph, roared away from the standing start and gradually edged away from the field, but frustration overtook him on the 14th lap. Pointing at the troublesome front end of his Tyrrell as he went past the pits, he watched helplessly as his teammate, Cevert, flashed by on the way to his first Grand Prix victory.

Stewart's fifth-place finish gave him a total of 62 points in the final standings for the World Driving Championship, 29 more than runner-up Peterson, who had four second place finishes in his rookie year. Although Cevert didn't get his wish to be "second best," he finished third in the standings with 26 points.

White Plains Boots KSC

WHITE PLAINS — White Plains scored three first half goals, then held off a Kingston rush to beat the Kickers, 3-1, in a Premier Division soccer game Sunday.

The home team got tallies from Livio Lavanti, Franco Schibler, and Peter Ehnes within the first 38 minutes of the contest. Kingston Manager Henry Inger said that during the stretch his team was "trying but it appeared their effort was only halfway, at best."

However, after the intermission Kingston began to regroup and open up on offense. Spiro Neofotistos sparked the backfield and the defense held off further White Plains scoring.

But only Gino Ventriglia could get one past goalie Pat Shields at the 78 minute mark to break a shutout. Kasim Selimovic assisted on the play.

The loss left Kingston with a 1-3 record. The Kickers return home this Sunday against Hoboken.

Nets Edge The Celtics

COMMACK, N.Y. (UPI) — The Boston Celtics, once mighty rulers of the National Basketball Association, have been beaten by an American Basketball Association team.

Bill Melchionni's 30-footer with four seconds left gave the New York Nets a 116-115 exhibition victory over the Celtics Sunday night.

Leading scorer in the game was New York's Rick Barry, former NBA Rookie of the Year, who has switched leagues and several teams since his first professional season with the then San Francisco Warriors. Barry, who sank a pair of free throws to make the score 115-114 and set the stage for the winning basket, had 24 points.

The Celtics Jo Jo White was second in scoring in the game with 21 points, followed by Boston's John Havlicek and Don Nelson with 18.

The Celtics play the ABA Carolina Cougars tonight in Charlotte, N.C.

It was Pine Bush's second win against one loss while Wallkill dropped to 0-3.

The Bushmen scored first on a safety in the second quarter, but Wallkill went ahead later in the period as Mark Walther caught a pass from Mike Dunn for six points.

Liberty Aerial Tops Rondout

Liberty High School was forced to go to the air for its sole touchdown as the Indians beat Rondout Valley, 7-0, here Saturday.

A 20-yard strike from Steve Foster to John Forrest in the second quarter gave the undefeated Liberty squad its first six points. Ron Meadow converted the PAT.

However, the strong home team was put to a big test by the young, but improving Rondout team. The Ganders drove to Liberty's three at one point in the third quarter but couldn't score.

Rondout picked up 143 yards on the ground with Henry Sherman and Billy Wilkins doing the bulk of the work.

But in the end it was Liberty's ability to throw when necessary that gave the Indians the win.

Maroon Grid Explosion Biggest in 56 Years

By IRA FUSFELD

KINGSTON Open up the record books, roll out the microfilm, Kingston High School is on a rampage.

While people still try to settle questions about the romp over Linton two Saturdays ago, they can now add an incredible 58-0 triumph against Troy to their list of things to look up.

But if you're trying to find a larger score than this one you'll have to go all the way back to the final game of the 1915 season (one-nine-one-five) when Kingston beat Mechanicville, 59-0.

That score stood the test of time and a proud Kingston heritage for 56 years. Once during that period did a Maroon team come close to topping the figure, that being in 1954 when KHS blanked Poughkeepsie, 54-0.

However the Troy contest was marked for greatness when the Maroons ran up 24 points in the first five minutes thereby settling the problem of which team would win and centering it on just how many points Kingston actually would accumulate.

Those first four tallies came in rapid fire order, almost as fast, in fact, as was the Maroon defensive line which continually was in the hair of Troy quarterback Bob Kewley.

When the Flying Horses failed to move the ball after the kickoff Kewley dropped back to punt. Only it was blocked by a host of Maroons and run in for the touchdown by Tim Pillsworth from some 14 yards out.

Troy's ball again. No movement so another punt, or attempted punt that is, as John Harris blocked it and KHS had the ball on the 11. Soon thereafter Joe Riley carried it home from the three for the first of five touchdowns he was to score while running 150 yards on the day ("It was the greatest game of his career," Coach Tony Badalato said later.)

Touchdown three came after Harris hit Kewley as he went back to throw. Dan Brown recovered on the 15 and on the next play Riley followed John Tiano's blocking for six points. Ralphie Longendyke set up Kewley's toss on the Kingston 25 to stop Troy's first march and bring it to the 33. Two plays later Riley broke a hole and went to the visitors' 35 and then Mark Snyder hit the right side of the line and scampered all the way to paydirt.

An interception by Joe Brown gave Kingston the ball near the end of the first quarter and the Maroons marched to the 15. In came Bruce McCrindle, who kicked two field goals against Linton. Only this time Bruce didn't kick as holder Walt Houghtaling scooted to the five on a perfectly executed fake. Riley carried home the bacon from the one.

Kingston still had one more TD left in it before the half. Frank Carey intercepted Kewley and the Maroons started driving, with Riley culminating the attack from the four.

And how do you think KHS got the ball for its next score? By an interception of course, but before Dan Brown plucked off an errant pass on the Kingston eight there was some worry among the faithful that Troy might become the first team to score on the Maroon defense. A fumble had given the upstarts a chance. But Brown's pickoff took care of that.

Then Houghtaling led Kingston to its longest sustained drive, eight plays, and Riley completed it with a stunning 36 yard romp.

There were two more TDs in the fourth quarter with the reserves playing. One was a beauty as Chuck Bouton combined with Bob Marz as he had the week before for a 38-yard pass play on a screen.

Later Abe Robinson intercepted Kewley on the Troy 30 and ran in for the final points.

It was simply an unbelievable performance.

"I really thought this was going to be a close game," said Badalato. "But our defense continued to give us excellent field position and the offense took care of the points."

"We beat a big team. Before this week I didn't do much thinking about ratings or anything like that but after beating two Capital District teams I think we deserve a good look."

The ratings are the New York State Sports Writers Association listings on the top teams in the state. Don't be surprised if Kingston is mentioned this week.

Arlington Tops Sawyers in DCSL

By TIM SCHUSTER

FREEDOM PLAINS

"They're good, but we could have beaten them with some offense," stated Saugerties football coach Fred Seither following his team's 16-6 loss to DCSL competitor Arlington Saturday.

Arlington struck like lightning the first time it got the ball, following several key reverses by Larry Riley into the end zone on a two-yard pluge by Brian Capalbe. A short jaunt by Riley gave the winners all the points they were to need, eight.

And what appeared to be a big break for the Sawyers shortly thereafter turned into disaster.

A long punt by Dave Fuller was recovered by guard Ken Hallion on the Arlington 15. Followed by a touchdown pass to Mike Bond which was called back because of illegal procedure.

This temporary setback did not seem to preclude a score as quarterback Rich Koegel moved the team to a first down on the three yard line, but on the next play Steve Mosonowicz stole the ball from Koegel's hands and scampered 96 yards for the second and final Arlington score.

And a short pass to Steve Colangelo gave the Dutchess club a comfortable 16-6 cushion going into the second period.

The fact was that Saugerties just could not get a sustained attack going, and did not get its third first down until the waning minutes of the half. Arlington controlled the ball for most of the first half with Riley and Capalbe picking up the necessary yardage for successive first downs. At halftime Arlington had 133 yards rushing to 65 for the Sawyers.

What appeared to be a break for Saugerties occurred on the third period kickoff as leading Arlington groundgainer Riley had to be carried off the field. He later was taken to a hospital and his future was uncertain in terms of football at game's end.

Saugerties got onto the score board via a spectacular 75 yard run by Ray Bean on a flare pass from Koegel in the third quarter, following several good blocks and breaking into the clear for the long run. The Sawyers had to go for the two points, and were thwarted on an attempted pass which was blocked at the line of scrimmage.

The fourth period was a melange of interceptions and fumbles. Koegel was intercepted three times Saturday. Saugerties lost two fumbles and Arlington three, testifying to the hard-nosed hitting taking place on the field.

With Arlington threatening again, following a Jim Gazzillo interception on the Saugerties 11, Sawyer Mark Silinovich recovered a fumble and ran 25 yards to his own 45.

But Arlington's Jim Hardiaty grabbed off a Koegel pass to kill the drive and Steve Burke gathered in the third errant Koegel pass of the period to insure the victory.

Saugerties could manage only 95 rushing yards all afternoon while Arlington was compiling 194. Koegel hit seven of 23 passes for 147 yards in the air, while Arlington contented itself with one for six for 18 yards.

Second Straight Upset for Army

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Army scored its second upset in a row, defeating favored Missouri, 22-6, before a record breaking crowd of 43,503 fans Saturday at Michie Stadium.

Former second-string quarterback, Kingsley Frank, relieving Dick Atha in the second quarter passed for three touchdowns and hurled Michie Stadium fans into ecstasy as the Cadets came from behind in the second half.

In other major state games, Cornell routed Rutgers, 31-17. Syracuse topped Indiana 7-0. Colgate defeated Yale 28-21.

Red Hook's Reid Too Much for OCS

By CHARLES J. TIANO

Sports Editor

BOICEVILLE The unseasonably warm October weather finally caught up with Steve Reid, Red Hook High's hard running halfback here Saturday, but by that time he had run through the Ontario defenses for two touchdowns, as the underdog Raiders smashed the Indian's, 20-12.

Reid scored a pair of touchdowns—one on a 10-yard jaunt, the other a spectacular 64-yard pass play, as Red Hook stopped Ontario's two-game winning streak and picked up its second triumph in three starts.

"He did a tremendous job all by himself," said Red Hook coach John Neilson in fulsome praise of his halfback, after Reid had been taken to Kingston Hospital by ambulance right after the game ended. He was given first aid treatment for heat exhaustion and released.

Red Hook's fine backfield quartet of Reid, Gary O'Connor, a sensational freshman fullback, Joe Pais, and slick throwing quarterback Don Theberge took over after Dan Brown completed a 44-yard scoring pass to Tom Sebald to put Ontario ahead 6-0 in the first quarter.

A Thebad-Steve Husman pass gave Red Hook first down on the OCS 37 in the second quarter. Some fine running by Gary O'Connor and Joe Cascone put the ball on the 10 and Reid circled right end for the equalizer. A run by Pais failed for the 2-pointer and it was 6-6.

A pass interception by Pais on the Red Hook 36 set the stage for Reid's spectacular 64-yard romp in the second quarter. He took a short pass from Theberge and was off, breaking three tackles, veering to the right sideline and going into the end zone untouched.

Pais passed to Cascone for the two pointer and it was 14-6.

A short punt to the OCS 31 set up Red Hook's third touchdown in the third period. Seven plays later, Pais, who rushed for 64 yards, slammed over from the 2 to put Red Hook ahead, 20-6, as the pass for two points failed.

Although Red Hook's hard running attack had exploited Ontario's interior line, the Indians still had a chance to tie it with an 8-pointer late in the game. Red Hook was penalized 15 yards on the kickoff after its third TD to its own 46. A 26-yard gallop by John Langling and a 19-yard run by Joe Phelan put the ball on the 1 and Langling slammed over for the TD.

The Langling TD fired up the Indians who dominated the fourth quarter. Ironically, as it happened in the Walkkill contest, Coach Joe DiGiovanni's zone to Tom Rozzi who made a circus catch in a pack of Duke defenders. The PAT made it 22-9, and the Highlanders just rubbed it in the second half.

Marlboro did their best to make things tough for the home team, however. George Salinovich took the second play of the game 59 yards to paydirt to stake the Dukes to an early touchdown lead. But the Blue came right back, marching 60 yards in seven plays with Perry Monroe doing the honors from five yards out.

"We had to show class," said the Blue's coach Lem Atkins. "after they put up that first touchdown, we had to come back. In a traditional rivalry like this one, you're only a good team if you have poise. We showed them we have it. We're a helluva good team."

Ron Monroe added a pair of TD's to the winners' tally, and Rozzi chipped in with two extra point receptions to round out the scoring. Milt Herring got a fourth quarter six-pointer, and Duane Martin nailed Barrington in his own end zone for a safety in the first period for the Dukes.

Herring and Salinovich were the only bright spots in the Marlboro coach Jerry Trezza's first five minutes thereby settling the problem of which team would win and centering it on just how many points Kingston actually would accumulate.

Those first four tallies came in rapid fire order, almost as fast, in fact, as was the Maroon defensive line which continually was in the hair of Troy quarterback Bob Kewley.

When the Flying Horses failed to move the ball after the kickoff Kewley dropped back to punt. Only it was blocked by a host of Maroons and run in for the touchdown by Tim Pillsworth from some 14 yards out.

Troy's ball again. No movement so another punt, or attempted punt that is, as John Harris blocked it and KHS had the ball on the 11. Soon thereafter Joe Riley carried it home from the three for the first of five touchdowns he was to score while running 150 yards on the day ("It was the greatest game of his career," Coach Tony Badalato said later.)

Hugies Edge Ellies

NEW PALTZ

Ellenville High School football coach Dave Frank called the game "frustrating." New Paltz coach John Ford said it was a "hard fought contest."

And therein lies the answer to the "which team won?" question.

New Paltz beat the Ellies, 28-20, here Saturday to send the visitors to their third straight UCAL defeat and Frank couldn't be blamed for calling the contest frustrating.

His team took a 6-0 lead in the first quarter on a 33 yard pass play from Wayne Grey to Ray Younger. New Paltz tied it in the second as the Ellies fumbled and the Hugies drove for the score with Joe Williams running from the seven for six points.

But Ellenville went back in front before the half when Grey scooted in from the three after he had completed a pass to Steve Tennenbaum setting up the touchdown.

Period three saw New Paltz go in front. An 80 yard march resulted in Joe Williams scoring. Williams took a pitch from Jay Ackert, fumbled on the way in, picked it up and went across the goal line. George Clark ran for two points.

The next New Paltz tally came after Mike Snyder of the Hugies lofted a 64 yard punt to pin Ellenville deep in its own territory. On third down Williams intercepted a pass in the flat and ran it in from the 15.

Ellenville came back to tie the score before the quarter ended when Gary Wilhelm plunged in from the one. A pass from Grey to Tennenbaum had put the Ellies in the good field position. Wilhelm's run produced the two points.

It came to the final three minutes before the game was decided. The winner was a 15 yard gallop by Ackert on a fourth down play. Clark ran for the extra points.

"We were very flat in the first half," said Coach Ford, "but the kids had a better attitude in the second half." The Hugie mentor cited many of his players for good performances including Ackert, Williams, Clark, Duane Decker, Mike Fariweather, Tom Wilson, Snyder, and Pete Savago.

Coach Frank meanwhile is still waiting to hear how serious the injury to back Keith Trappell was last week against Highland. Trappell could have cracked vertebrae. He was hit as he dove to make a catch in that game.

Five Teeners Arrested After Home Is Fire Bombed

NEW YORK (AP) — Five teenagers, who live in the neighborhood, have been accused of firebombing the home of a black family in Rosedale, Queens.

The five, plus a 15-year-old boy who will be tried as a minor, were accused of bombing the home of Howard Ireland, a 41-year-old accountant, on Sept. 12, causing little damage and no injuries.

Each of the defendants is white. The predominantly white section of Rosedale has been the scene of other racially-motivated attacks on blacks.

Ireland, whose home was put under police guard after the incident, said he had no intention of moving. He said he did not know the youths, who live in the neighborhood.

His neighbors had displayed no hostility since he moved his family into the house Aug. 10, Ireland said. After an assistant district attorney called the bombing a "heinous crime" at Friday's arraignment, Criminal Court Judge Philip Chetta was told that Ireland, his wife and their four children, aged 11, 10, 9 and 7, were in the house when it was attacked.

The judge then set bail at $7,500 for Kevin Downie 19; $5,000 each for Richard Zollo, Salvatore DeSantis and Steven Gludis, all 16; and $2,500 for Donald Munson, 16, and set Wednesday for their trial on arson and other charges.

Onondaga County Buys Penn-Central RR Property

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — Officials of Onondaga County entered the only bid at a tax auction Friday and then claimed they had purchased the entire holdings of the Penn Central Railroad in the county—property valued at $2.5 million.

County Executive John H. Mulroy said the move was made despite a federal court order against the takeover, because the railroad had given no indication that it intended to pay a delinquent tax bill of $453,000.

Mulroy said he and other county officers believed the fiscally beleaguered railroad would have waited another few years before offering to pay the taxes and then would have tried to negotiate a settlement. He said the result would be a loss of about $3 million in school and property taxes in the meanwhile.

He said, after the sale, that the railroad now has three years in which to redeem its property and pay the ever-growing tax bill plus 10 percent interest. If the railroad fails to pay, the county executive said, clear title to all the property will go to the county.

2 Appointments To Art Council

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Gov. Rockefeller announced today the appointments of a Corning business executive and a former official of the Metropolitan Transportation Authority to membership on the State Council on the Arts.

James R. Houghton, vice chairman of the Corning Glass Works, was named for a term ending March 31, 1976. Houghton succeeds Hy Faine of New York City, who had resigned.

Edward M. Kresky, now vice president of Wertheim and Co. and formerly MTA secretary, was designated to serve until March 31, 1974. Kresky succeeds Eric Larabee of New York City, who also had resigned.

Council members serve without salary. The council was created in 1965 to promote interest in the performing and fine arts.

Car Accident Claims Three

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Two young women remained in critical condition today following a two-car accident over the weekend that claimed three lives on the Troy-Menands bridge just north of here.

Menands police said a car driven by Hubert Ballou, 22, of Albany failed to negotiate a turn onto the Menands end of the bridge Saturday night and jumped a median divider.

The Ballou car slammed into one operated by Mavis A. Koniowska, 24, of Troy, which was going in the opposite direction, police said.

Killer were the Koniowska woman, Ballou and a passenger in his car, Sharon Barker, 18, of Schenectady.

Two other passengers in Ballou's vehicle, Deborah Smith, 20, and Patricia A. Ballou, 22, both of Albany, were listed in critical condition with multiple injuries.

Traffic on the bridge was halted for several hours while the wreckage of the two demolished cars was cleared.

'Doctors' — Shift of Emphasis

NEW YORK (AP) — Viewers, approved by committees from physicians' organizations and who have looked in on "The Doctors" segment of NBC's "The Bold Ones" over the past couple of years may have noted the shift of emphasis in its plots. It has moved from an exploration of the new frontiers of medical science to treating human dilemmas.

This puts it in the category with CBS' "Medical Center" and ABC's "Marcus Welby, M.D." but sometimes there is a difference. Sunday night's drama was a sympathetic treatment of a hospital paramedic—a doctor's assistant—who was stealing hospital supplies to treat illegally sick people in a slum district. It was notable for the intense performance of Zooley Hall as a former Vietnam medic and even more for some of his explosive dialogue about inadequate medical care for the poor—lack of physicians in slum areas and long waits for short appointments in clinics. Most of television's doctor shows have scripts checked and the thick country accents of the English characters. It is the story of Jude Fawcett, an orphan from a working class family who has a passion for books and learning and is determined to win a university education. His passion for a pig farmer's daughter, however, forces him into a brief, unfortunate marriage.

Critical Tests for Economic Program

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Nixon's new economic program faced critical tests in Congress today, with both the House and Senate voting on proposals to reverse his order for a six-month delay of pay raises for government workers.

In the House, Democrats — contending Nixon was asking too much from the nation's million federal civilian and military employees — mobilized behind a "resolution of disapproval" that would put the 5.5 per cent pay boost into effect Jan. 1 as scheduled originally.

Leading the Senate fight against the President was a member of his own party, Maryland Republican Charles McC. Mathias sought to overturn Nixon's Executive Order with an amendment to the $21 billion Military Procurement Bill and White House lobbyists fought to put down the uprising.

The President also personally appealed Saturday for support on grounds that his efforts to slow inflation with the current wage-price freeze would suffer a severe setback if Congress did not wait until July 1 to add $2.6 billion to the government's annual $52 billion military and civilian payroll.

"If the Congress should veto the deferral, an unmistakable signal will be sent to business, to labor and to skeptical friends abroad that the legislative branch has unilaterally withdrawn from the national alliance of private and public institutions determined to halt inflation," Nixon argued.

House approval of the resolution sponsored by Rep. Jerome R. Waldie, D-Calif., would override the President's order by itself, but the amendment offered by Mathias would require concurring action by the House to become law.

Far more certain of House passage was the tax cut package Nixon proposed to stimulate the economy. A vote was scheduled Tuesday or Wednesday and approval of the $15.4 billion in reduced business and personal taxes was all but assured despite opposition from Rep. Henry S. Reuss, D-Wis., and other members who charge the legislation is heavily weighted in favor of big corporations.

FRIENDSHIP VISIT — Soviet President Nikolai V. Podgorny flew to Hanoi Sunday from Burma for what North Vietnam called a "friendship visit" to show Russian support for the Communist side in the Vietnam war.

Earlier North Viet Resupply

WASHINGTON (AP) — The North Vietnamese may launch their dry-season resupply push along the Ho Chi Minh trail earlier than usual this year, U.S. military officials say.

Analysts say the North Vietnamese will try to gain a few extra weeks to help make up for the tonnage they were unable to get through to their troops in South Vietnam and Cambodia during the past dry season.

Pentagon specialists claim the North Vietnamese put less than 10,000 tons through the Ho Chi Minh trail system before the heavy rains came in May compared with about 20,000 tons the year before.

They chalked this up to heavy U.S. interdiction bombing and the South Vietnamese army's ground operations against sections of the trail in southern Laos last winter.

In most years, the North Vietnamese supply drive is well under way by about the first of November. This year, officials said, they look for this to happen by mid-October.

U.S. reconnaissance detected heavy North Vietnamese road construction in the Laotian Panhandle earlier this year. For the second year in a row, they said, the North Vietnamese kept between 40,000 and 50,000 men in the Laotian Panhandle during the drier-than-usual rainy season to prepare for gearing up the truck shuttle of supplies when the weather clears.

High Court Tributes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court opens a new term today with two vacancies delaying a vote on the constitutionality of the death penalty and other important questions.

The opening session was for tributes to Justices Hugo L. Black and John M. Harlan, who retired last month. Black died a week later. Harlan is in a hospital with cancer.

The court last met in June with nine men, when it ruled newspapers could not be prevented from publishing the Pentagon papers, which traced the history of American involvement in Vietnam.

The court had planned to consider major cases between Oct. 12 and Oct. 20, including four appeals by death-row prisoners testing the constitutionality of capital punishment.

Because of the two vacancies, however, the cases were shifted Sept. 24 to the winter months of the nine-month term.

Other delayed disputes involve pollution of Lake Michigan, rules for questioning suspects and whether criminal convictions can be returned by less than unanimous juries. If the cases had been heard this month, the two new justices would not have been able to vote on them because they probably will not be seated in time to hear the arguments.

President Nixon has been considering the two replacements, but one of those thought to have an inside track removed himself from contention Saturday.

Rep. Richard H. Poff, R-Va., said that if he were nominated "it appears that the confirmation process would be protracted and controversial."

He had been opposed by various groups for signing the 1954 Southern Manifesto against school desegregation and for opposition to civil-rights legislation.

The White House accepted Poff's withdrawal, saying it left "one less highly qualified person to consider."

Before the vacancies are filled, the court is to decide which of the hundreds of appeals filed since June 30 it will consider.

The vacancies could influence the court's decision on which appeals to accept. In the past, with nine members seated, the court has required the votes of at least four justices to accept a case. The court has not said whether it will reduce the requirement.

Among other cases the court has agreed to consider are whether states may require residency of up to a year before voting; whether newsmen may be forced to testify in criminal cases; whether private clubs operating under a state charter may discriminate against blacks; and a Colorado case involving job advancements for Negroes.

Dock Talks Are Resumed

By United Press International

Striking longshoremen and shipping association representatives resumed negotiations on the East and West Coasts today in an effort to settle strikes which have shut down most of the nation's seaports.

Also meeting in the East were policy makers of the United Mine Workers Union (UMW) whose members walked off the job in 20 states Friday after their contracts expired.

Leaders of the striking International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union (ILWU) and their employer group, the Pacific Maritime Association, met separately Sunday with J. Curtis Counts, head of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service.

Counts said the talks were progressing, because there were "less obstacles in the way," but refused to comment on just what points had been settled and when an agreement might be reached in the 96-day-old strike, the longest in the region's history.

The strike, which began July 1, has tied up ports along the Pacific from Canada to Mexico and hit hard at the export-import economy of the Hawaiian Islands.

President Nixon, who spent

Sunday in the Bahamas, hoped West Coast dockworkers would reach a settlement before he would be forced to invoke the 84-day injunction provision of the Taft-Hartley Act. His target date of Saturday for an end to the walkout came and passed without a settlement.

In the East, members of the International Longshoremen's Association (ILA) and the New York Shipping Association resumed talks today after a weekend recess.
